TELEPHONE FRANCHISE WILL PROBABLY BE GRANTED

Rumor That Certain Councilmen Will Try to Place Riders in Ordinance to Make Franchise Worthless.

Thousands of Petitioners Who Ask That Franchise be Granted Awaiting the Action of the City Council—City Councilmen Will Go on Record Tonight Either Being For or Against the People.

SHALL OAKLAND TURN $1,000,000 IN CASH FROM ITS DOORS?

SHALL OAKLAND HAVE THE LATEST IMPROVEMENTS IN THE TELEPHONE LINE?

SHALL COMPETITION BE PERMITTED IN THE TELEPHONE BUSINESS IN OAKLAND?

SHALL THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE BE HEARD IN THE COUNCIL CHAMBER?

SHALL THE PETITION OF THE LEADING BANKERS, MERCHANTS AND CITIZENS REQUESTING THAT THE HOME TELEPHONE COMPANY FRANCHISE BE GRANTED BE RESPECTED BY THE CITY COUNCIL?

THESE ALL IMPORTANT QUESTIONS TO THE PEOPLE OF OAKLAND WILL BE ANSWERED BY THE COUNCIL TONIGHT.

WHERE THE CITY FATHERS STAND.

HERE IS WHERE THE CITY FATHERS STAND ON THIS MOST IMPORTANT ISSUE:

For the Franchise and the People.	Against the Franchise	Undecided
COUNCILMEN FITZGERALD AITKEN BURNS DONALDSON ELLIOT MEESE PENDLETON THURSTON	COUNCILMAN HAHN	COUNCILMEN BACCUS McADAM

The Committee of the Whole of the City Council, which meets tonight, will probably recommend that the Council grant the Home Telephone Company a franchise to put in a competing telephone plant.

The vote of the eleven Councilmen, according to their already expressed opinions, will stand as follows:

For franchise—
PRESIDENT FITZGERALD
COUNCILMAN AITKEN
COUNCILMAN BURNS
COUNCILMAN DONALDSON
COUNCILMAN ELLIOT
COUNCILMAN MEESE
COUNCILMAN THURSTON
COUNCILMAN PENDLETON—8.

Against franchise—
COUNCILMAN HAHN—1.

Undecided—
COUNCILMAN BACCUS
COUNCILMAN McADAM—2.

As the City Council will meet immediately after the Committee of the Whole adjourns tonight it is probable that the ordinance granting the franchise will be given its first and second reading and passed to print.

GREAT BENEFIT TO CITY.

The benefits which will accrue to the City of Oakland in event of the favorable action of the Council tonight are the immediate investment of $1,000,000, the installation of a modern and automatic telephone plant and the immediate improvement of the existing telephone system by virtue of competition and the employment of additional labor in constructing and maintaining the new system.

DEMAND THE FRANCHISE

The business world, on which the burden of maintaining a double telephone system will fall exclusively, demands that the franchise be granted. That this demand is general and comes from all departments of the commercial community of this city is evidenced by the signatures of more than 1,500 of the leading business and financial men of the community to a petition now in the hands of the Council, asking that the franchise be granted. On the petition the following names are to be found:

JOHN C. ADAMS, Union National Bank.

D. EDWARD COLLINS, President California Bank.

A. D. WILSON, Vice-President Security Bank and Trust Company.

J. Y. ECCLESTON, Cashier Oakland Bank of Savings.

and 1,500 other names which are equally well known and influential.

WILL OF THE PEOPLE.

That the petition accurately represents the will of the people is evidenced by the fact that it is signed by men in every walk of life and circumstances. In addition to the individual petitions the two commercial bodies of the city—the Board of Trade and the Merchants' Exchange, have taken no uncertain stand on the question and demand of the city legislators that a franchise be granted forthwith, so that the advancement of Oakland shall not be retarded.

The position taken by the two commercial organizations is that it would be unwise, foolish and detrimental to the best interests of the city to drive $1,000,000 of capital, which the Home Telephone Company guarantees to spend, away and force it to seek investment in some other community.

It is pointed out that other cities have adopted the automatic system of the Home Telephone Company and found it to be successful in every particular.

FOR THE NEW SERVICE.

The stand taken by the majority of the City Council in the matter of granting a franchise has the unqualified endorsement of the public. The householders and residents generally are practically unanimous in declaring for the franchise. Aside from the fact that $1,000,000 of new capital will be invested in the city, bringing with it material prosperity in the way of new buildings and increased employment of labor, the general public will receive the benefit of quick and satisfactory services.

The merchants, the only ones in a position to make a protest on the ground that two telephones would have to be maintained, have declared for the franchise as to their mind the advantages to be gained far outweigh the disadvantages.

LET THERE BE NO TRICKS.

During the last few days rumors on the street declare that while the City Council will heed the popular demand that the franchise be granted, that onerous restrictions and one or two "jokers" will be inserted in the ordinance granting the franchise, thus making it practically inoperative.

It is said that the opposition to the new telephone company, realizing the force of the popular demand, will not try to defeat the proposed franchise by votes in the City Council, but will rely on several ingeniously devised "riders" in the way of amendments to the ordinance to accomplish the same purpose.

The Councilmen in favor of granting the franchise state that they know of no such connivance on the part of their colleagues, and will not believe it until such a state of facts is actually demonstrated.

WHAT HAHN SAYS.

Councilman Hahn, the only member of the City Council who is openly against the new telephone company, states he is opposed to competition in the telephone business, but is not opposed to that principle being applied in other industries.

"I think," he says," that the system of double telephones would be confusing."

Councilmen Aitken, Meese, Elliot and others who are in favor of the franchise believe that the operation of the Home Telephone Company in Los Angeles and other parts of Southern California refute the arguments that the double system entails any unusual inconvenience.

JUDGE NORTH'S VIEWS.

Judge North, who is representing the Home Telephone Company before the Council, is hopeful of obtaining the franchise without restrictions which would make the operation of a telephone system impossible. He said this morning:

"I believe the Council will grant the franchise because it is to the best interests of the city of Oakland to do so. Our company which guarantees to invest a sum in excess of $850,000 is the only one which can be the loser.

FIERCE RIOTS AMONG THE JAPANESE

EMPRESS OF JAPAN. EMPEROR OF JAPAN.

Do Not Like the Way the Peace Envoys Settled the War--Christian Churches Attacked.

TOKIO, Tuesday, Sept. 5, 9:30 p. m. — The city continues in an uproar. Detached mobs attacked and demolished and burned eleven outlying police sub-stations. They easily dispersed and disarmed the small guarding forces, and the work of destruction was accomplished without serious encounters. Yelling crowds of sightseers mingling with the rioters fill the main down town streets. During the evening detachments of imperial guards were ordered to central parts of the city to assist in protecting government buildings and preserving order. Blockades were established around the buildings and the public excluded.

Street car traffic was suspended in the troublesome district on account of inability to move the cars. The wildest rumors are sweeping through the city. It is impossible to accurately guage the situation and the extent and seriousness of the crisis. Until today's events the majority of the conservative element seemed to be accepting the Portsmouth result. Now the aspect is changed.

CITY REMAINS QUIET.

TOKIO, Wednesday, Sept. 6, 8:30 p. m.—The city continues quiet. Small crowds are assembled around Hibaya Park, but there is no trouble.

The office of the Kokumin newspaper, continues to be besieged. The doors and windows are blockaded and lines of police enclose the entire block. Heavy police reserves are within call. A detachment of mounted gendarmes is stationed in front of the Foreign Office, prepared to meet emergencies in the disturbed district. About the government buildings a military display is not conspicuous. A few sentries are patrolling in front of the government buildings and official residences. The main forces of the military remain concealed. It is predicted that rioting will be resumed tonight under cover of darkness. It is feared that trouble will follow the public meetings planned for later in the week.

Although opponents of the Government say that if the people are given the constitutional right to hold public meetings of protest, order will prevail.

IRRITATING FEATURE.

An irritating feature of the situation is the continued failure of the government to inform the public of the exact results at Portsmouth. Not a single feature of the negotiations has been communicated officially to the people. The result has been much popular resentment. The people argue that they fought and paid for the war, and are entitled to know the results.

Arrests since noon yesterday number 200. The police captured eight assailants of the Home Minister's residence and detained as prisoners within a compound until morning, fearing that the populace might attempt a rescue. The total of dead reported to date is four.

DESTROYED STATION.

TOKIO, Sept. 6, 7 a. m.—The destruction of small police sub-stations continued until midnight. It is impossible to ascertain the exact number destroyed, but it is estimated that fifteen were wrecked. Two of the larger police stations were also destroyed. The mobs generally prevented damage to adjoining private property by dragging the police kiosks into the middle of the streets before applying the torch.

Shortly after midnight another attempt was made against the Kokumin Shimbun offices, but the police dispersed the attackers, killing one of the the assailants. The fact that the man was cut in the back angered the crowd, which demanded the arrest of the policemen.

Detachments of national troops mobilized on account of the war, were called out during the night. The crowds received the soldiers goodnaturedly and cheered them. The principal duty of the troops was the protection of the police.

ANGER OF CROWDS.

The anger of the crowds was chiefly on account of the closing of the Hibiya Park, and the denial of the right to publicly meet in the park, which is under the charge of the municipality. After the park was closed yesterday the Mayor and Council met immediately and protested to the government, and insisted that the park be re-opened. It is now claimed that all trouble resulted from indiscreet closing of the park. Students and young street rowdies seemed to be the largest participants in the disorder of the night. The firemen succeeded in saving the main structure of the Home Minister's residence. Only the outbuildings were destroyed.

DEAD AND WOUNDED.

It is impossible to secure accurate figures of the casualties. The Jiji estimates them at two dead and 500 wounded in all, including those seriously and slightly injured, among whom are one hundred policemen. The wounds are mostly slight sword thrusts, and bruises made by stones.

The city is exceedingly quiet this morning, and it is possible that the trouble is over.

BURNED CHURCHES.

TOKIO, Sept. 7.—A mob burned and destroyed ten Christian churches and one mission school last night (Wednesday). The people were not injured.

SERIOUS RIOTING.

TOKIO, Sept. 5, (Tuesday, 7 p. m.)—Serious rioting followed the attack today on the office of Kokumin Shinbun, the government organ. A mob attacked and burned the official residence of the Minister of Home Affairs, which stood between the Nobles' Club and the Imperial Hotel. Threatening demonstrations occurred in the neighborhood of the official homes of Premier Katsura and Baron Komura, Foreign Minister, who is now in the United States, but the police succeeded in preventing injury to the occupants or damage to the houses.

THREATENING.

The situation tonight is threatening. Turbulent crowds fill the streets, and it is feared much damage to property is possible under the cover of darkness. All the police reserves are performing urgent duty, and heavy guards are placed. The streets in the neighborhood of the Kokumin Shinbun are closed and two hundred police form a cordon around the vicinity. The destruction of the Home Mission residence was intensely dramatic.

THE ATTACK.

Throughout the day a series of demonstrations occurred in the neighborhood and late in the afternoon the mob attacked the building, swept the police away, and battered down the gates. The police and servants resisted stoutly, but the mob surged forward and entered, one of the mob leaders carrying an armful of burning straw, gained the rear of the structure, and succeeded in setting it on fire.

The police reserves charged the crowds, using their swords freely, but the mob rallied from several quarters and stoned the firemen when they arrived. The members of the Minister's household were rescued and escorted to the Imperial Hotel.

IN DARKNESS.

When darkness came, the flames from the building illuminated a menacing scene, the mob howling and throwing stones at the police and firemen, repeatedly clearing the streets.

Accurate figures of the casualties are not obtainable. It is known that one man was killed, that fourteen were mortally wounded by sword thrusts, and that many people were bruised with stones and injured in the crushes.

Another demonstration is planned by September 8th, and it is believed that the strongest measures will be necessary to prevent serious rioting and bloodshed.

BURNED HOUSE.

A member of the mob which burned the Home Minister's residence said to the representative of the Associated Press:

"We burned the house for the purpose of attracting the attention of the Emperor. We want him to refuse to ratify the treaty. We believe that those surrounding him prevent him

Osgoods' Two Drug Stores

Cut-Rate Cigar Talk

We started the price-cutting of Cigars in Oakland and we're keeping it up. We intend to keep it up. A fair profit satisfies us, whether it be on drugs, novelties, supplies or cigars; we don't want it all.

All 12½c Cigars 10c

—not a few store brands, but all standard makes—Optimo, Humboldt, Belmont, Sinceridad, Sanchez & Haya, etc. You don't have to buy a box to get our cut-rate; buy a single cigar and you save 2½ cents.

How many thousands of dollars think you have we saved the smokers of Oakland during the past two years?

THE CEDULA

A Regular 10c Cigar 5c

The Cedula is a nicely-shaped cigar—it's agreeable to the fingers and the lips. It is a fragrant cigar—you appreciate its smoke even when another fellow is smoking it. It is a carefully filled cigar—it draws easily and pleasantly, but does not burn the tongue.

It is a genuine Havana cigar, superior to many that are sold at ten cents.

TRUNKS

Our Great Special $7.00

The particular trunk that we refer to, is the kind that is usually sold for twelve dollars and it's worth it. It is a strong trunk, good size, has a convenient tray in compartments; flaps beneath lid; extra re-inforcements—a first-class traveling trunk.

But we are price-cutters; and besides, we want more fully to introduce our trunk department. So we sell the trunk we have described for SEVEN DOLLARS. Come and see it and if you need one you'll surely buy it.

from correctly understanding the popular attitude toward the disgraceful, humiliating peace"

WRECK OFFICE.

TOKIO Sept 6 (delayed in transmission)—The only serious disturbance this morning was the partial wrecking of a printing office which was assisting the Kokumin Shimbun to publish its editions The crowd attempted to enter the building, but were prevented by soldiers, and some fighting resulted. The police were withdrawn and kept in the background on account of popular disfavor. The soldiery and gendarmes are performing general duty, the soldiers guarding the foreign legations

THE OUTBREAK.

Apparently there is an outbreak of anti-foreign sentiment, but the government is anxious to prevent the injury of members of the legations and other foreigners A few foreigners have been caught by the mobs and roughly used

The Nichi Nichi says

"How can the government retain its dignity in the presence of such rioting? The members of the committee appointed at its meeting have good standing, and are not irresponsible agitators. The police exceeded their authority, with a result derogatory of the honor and dignity of Tokio Popular indignation was set on fire and the police finally were unable to keep order. If the present conditions continue, the contagion may spread, and innocent people and their property be damaged."

SAYS CONTRACTOR RUINED HER HOUSE

In a suit now pending, in which William P. Grant, a housemover is endeavoring to collect moneys amounting to $229.80 from Honora Bentley, she filed her answer to his claim this moning, she states that she authorized him to make certain repairs on a house in Berkeley which were to cost $100 Instead of this she claims that he has twisted the house and wrenched it so badly that the roof leaks and it is uninhabitable. She also asserts that he has not even yet completed the work to be done, all of which, she asserts, is not worth more than the sum of $150, which she states she has offered to pay him, but which he has refused.

China Makes Change in System of Education.

PEKIN, Sept. 6 (delayed in transmission).—An important edict has been issued in response to the memorial of Yuanshikwan and other prominent men, abolishing examinations for the old system of degrees. By means of this system, established from time immemorial, China has recruited government officers. The idea of obtaining by competitive examination the best educated men is essentially good, but it has been rendered entirely futile by the knowledge demanded.

Hitherto the aspirant for honors was required to be proficient in the writing of Confucius and other classics, the ability to compose essays in peculiar form constituting really a kind of literary jugglery. The learning so acquired was entirely useless for practical purposes, while the close study required to attain the necessary knowledge prevents attention to other modern and more useful subjects. Moreover, the posts of honor always falling to the lot of successful candidates, and thus educated, discourages efforts in the direction of western learning. In future, officers will be recruited from the ranks of those educated according to the modern system in schools to be established throughout the country. Examinations will be held in the various schools and not in the central towns as formerly. This edict offers strongest inducement to the Chinese to acquaint themselves with western learning and will prove a most effective means for China's salvation.

Another edict advocates the dispatch of increasing numbers of students abroad, chiefly to America and England.

FORTY PERSONS PERISH

Storm on the Lake Claims Many Victims.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 7.—W. A. Hawgood & Co., owners of the steamer Iosco, which foundered in the recent heavy storm on Lake Superior, today received a telegram from Marquette, Mich., saying that the bodies of four men and one woman have been washed ashore at Pine River, with life preservers attached to them, bearing the name "Iosco."

The woman is believed to have been the wife of the cook.

The Iosco carried a crew of nineteen persons, all of whom undoubtedly perished. The total number of lives lost in the Lake Superior storm is now placed at forty.

BELIEVES SON HAS PERISHED

C. J. PETERSON THINKS BOY DIED WHILE SEARCHING FOR MINE.

C. J. Peterson of 567 Thirty-sixth street fears that his son, Leonard J. Peterson, was one of the two men recently found dead in the waterless wastes of Death valley. He today asked the assistance of the police department in ascertaining the facts in the case.

Tuesday a report came from Nevada that two young men, one of them named Peterson, had perished in the Death valley region while presumably searching for "Scotty's" mine. This newspaper item startled C. J. Peterson, because his son Leonard had been in the Tonopah and Goldfield districts for a year, and for several weeks no word has been received from him.

Mr. Peterson at once concluded that his son, who is of a venturesome nature, had gone in quest of the notorious "Scotty's" mine and perished in the desert.

Leonard J. Peterson, if alive, is twenty-two years old, 6 feet 1 inch in height, weighs 170 pounds; is light complexioned, has blue eyes and has a scar on his left cheek. The police will communicate with the Nevada authorities with a view of establishing the identity of the Peterson found dead in the desert.

SPORTS EXPECT A BATTLE

DO NOT THINK MATCH BETWEEN BRITT AND NELSON WILL BE POSTPONED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—The situation in regard to the Britt-Nelson glove contest, scheduled for Saturday, remains unchanged today.

However, the concensus of opinion among those best informed is that there will be no postponement and that Jeffries will be the third man in the ring.

It is said that Billy Nolan, manager for Nelson, has agreed to withdraw his opposition to Jeffries if a bond of $15,000 is given, to be forfeited in case there is any question of referee's fairness. Manager Coffroth declines to discuss this matter, but says that he is confident that every obstacle to the fight will be overcome before the men enter the ring.

WILL ENTERTAIN VISITORS

BOARD OF TRADE TO GIVE LUNCHEON TO GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS.

The delegates to the convention of the Association of Officials of Bureaus of Labor Statistics will tomorrow visit this side of the bay. These officials are connected with the Bureau of Commerce and Labor, of which department Secretary Victor H. Metcalf of this city is at the head. The delegates will leave San Francisco on the 8:20 boat and go direct to Berkeley, where at 9:15 o'clock the regular business session of the convention will be held in room 1 of the Philosophy building.

At 11 o'clock President Wheeler of the University has arranged for a University meeting in the Greek Theater in honor of the guests. Immediately after the close of the meeting in the Greek Theater the visitors will become the guests of the Oakland Board of Trade on a tour of the city and surrounding country and at luncheon in Piedmont Sulphur Springs Gardens.

Upon leaving the University, special cars will leave direct for Oakland and thence to the Piedmont Gardens, where dinner will be served upon the broad piazzas of the Club House. After dinner the party will take special cars from Bancroft way to Oakland; where they will go to the top of the Union Savings Bank building and get a bird's-eye view of the city. Then special cars will be taken to Fruitvale, San Leandro, San Lorenzo and Hayward, returning and if time will permit will go through Alameda. The party will thence return to San Francisco.

"All I have in the world I owe to my wife," murmured the millionaire, who was about to fail, "and I guess I better square up with her right now."

KILLED IN WRECK

Express Trains Crash Together in Pennsylvania.

NEWCASTLE, Pa., Sept. 7.—A collision of express trains has occurred on the Western New York and Pennsylvania Railroad at Wilmington Junction, ten miles north of here. Though only two persons were killed, it is reported a score or more were injured.

The dead are:

Wm. Barnhardt, engineer, and the fireman, whose name is not known.

All the ambulances in Newcastle and medical assistance have been summoned and the injured will be brought to a hospital here. The trains in the collision were an extra passenger from this city, loaded with excursionists bound for the Stoneboro Fair, and the regular train from Stoneboro, which was due to arrive here at 9:30 a. m. The trains met on a curve.

Wm. Barnhardt, who lost his life, was a resident of Stoneboro, and had been on the road ever since it was built over thirty years ago. He was running on the regular train. The fireman and engineer of the special saved their lives by jumping. At least a half-dozen of those injured are considered to be in a critical condition.

Climbing to the top of Mount Middle Age, eh? When you get there the footing is mighty poor.

As you begin to go down the other side be sure to take the right trail. Even that's rough and insecure. It's not a bad idea to have something to relieve the jolts of the descent. A Pacific Mutual Life Endowment Policy will be comforting to carry on the journey. See Walter Hoff Seely, Manager San Francisco Branch, 108 Crocker Building. He will tell you all about it.

WILL PARADE AT SACRAMENTO

ATHENS PARLOR OF NATIVE SONS TO EXHIBIT NEW BANNER.

On the twenty-eighth of June last, Athens Parlor No. 195, N. S. G. W., gave a theater party at Ye Liberty Playhouse, the proceeds of which were used for the purchase of a banner and carriage. The following committee had charge of the affair and to them belongs the credit of a successful benefit: E. F. Garrison, chairman; E. G. Buswell Jr., Dave G. Howie, Norman R. White, Nicholas Brophy, John P. Lutgen, Frank Graham and Dr. Gross. The committee was honored with the presence of the Grand President of the Native Sons, James L. Gallagher, who delivered an address.

P. LUTGEN.

The committee supplied the large audience with souvenir programs, containing a pretty drawing of one of California's famous old missions, photographs of Athens officers, list of past presidents of the Parlor, information concerning the coming Admission Day celebration at Sacramento, description of Athens Parlor's Admission Day Uniforms, growth of the parlor, a photograph of Grand Trustee Joseph R. Knowland, the location of Oakland and Sacramento headquarters, together with other information as to the history of the Native Sons of the Golden West, Athens class initiations, etc.

J. T. ARMSTRONG.

Decorations, emblematic of the order were used conspicuously throughout the theater and the members of the committee were stationed at the door to greet their friends and present them with the souvenir programs. The benefit was a success and now the big Admission Day celebration is at hand and, Athens Parlor intends to be a factor in the parade at Sacramento.

The new banner and carriage arrived Tuesday and was accepted by the parlor at its meeting Tuesday evening. It was shipped to Sacramento today.

It was the intention of the parlor to exhibit the banner and carriage in the windows of C. J. Heeseman & Co., but owing to an unavoidable delay the banner arrived too late. The ninth of September committee is as follows: E. F. Garrison, chairman; J. T. Armstrong, J. P. Lutgen, Ed S. Babue, E. H. Dean, William A. Gauge and N. P. White.

Athens Parlor at the big celebration held in San Francisco in 1900 won the prize as being the best dressed parlor in the parade. The members are after the same laurels this year. Their uniforms are of cream flannel coat and trousers, white silk vest, full dress shirt, cream flannel fedora hat, white shoes, white parasol with white and yellow streamers and a costly white badge.

The fact that the members are to launch their new banner and carriage on this occasion has caused considerable enthusiasm and large numbers of members of the parlor will attend the celebration.

Alameda county will have a separate division, headed by Frank Barnet as aide, comprising the following parlors: Athens, Piedmont, Oakland, Alameda, Brooklyn, Halcyon and Berkeley. Piedmont and Brooklyn each having its own drum corps.

Athens Parlor will have special escorts, mounted on black steeds, W. S. Schmidt and Albert Henno. The parlor will also take to Sacramento a special uniformed band of twenty pieces.

Facts About the American Indian's Healthy Hair.

The American Indian accustomed from time immemorial to go bareheaded in all kinds of weather is never troubled with falling hair or baldness.

The close atmosphere caused by our "civilized" head-gear is conductive of the breeding of infinitesimal germs which dig into the scalp and thrive on the sap of the hair-root.

This true cause of baldness is of recent discovery and explains the non-success of all hair-vigors which treated baldness as a functional disorder.

Newbro's Herpicide is a direct exterminator of the germ. "It destroys the cause" and permits the hair to grow as nature intended.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Company, Detroit, Michigan. Bowman & Company, special agents.

STAFF WILL PAY THEIR OWN WAY

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Sept. 7.—Governor Folk and his military staff, who will leave Kansas City next Saturday to visit the Portland fair, will pay their own way. The Governor will pay his own personal expenses, including railroad transportation. He will not allow the State Commission to pay them, as it wanted to do.

The Governor also insists that each member of his staff must pay his own way. This will be the first time in the history of the State that the Governor's staff has borne its own expenses on an occasion of this kind.

The Governor takes the position that, while the members of his staff are not State officers in the strictest meaning of the statute, they are so closely connected with the Government that it would be placing the administration under obligations to the railways if they accepted passes.

GALL STONES REMOVED

A New Remedy for This Serious Trouble Which Acts Like Magic.

The most frequent and least suspected cause of stomach trouble is the presence of gall stones, caused by an unhealthy condition of the bile, which has become thickened and gummy and adheres to the walls of the duct in thickened, cheesy masses, around which the biliary salts have been deposited and hardened, forming the so-called stones; these prevent the flow of bile necessary to complete digestion, which, being forced into the general circulation, causes the sallow complexion so often accompanying stomach trouble. Appendicitis, so-called, is an intestinal inflammation extending to the quill-like attachment to the caecum, called the appendix, caused by some irritating matter held in that part of the intestine.

The Pinus Medicine Company, of San Francisco, has discovered a remedy called Fruitola, which acts like magic for these troubles, dispelling the gall stones, allaying the inflammation and rendering an operation unnecessary. For full particulars of some remarkable cures and pamphlet apply to

AIRSHIP MEETS WITH MISHAP

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 7.—Professor John J. Montgomery's aeroplane met with a mishap at 6:30 o'clock last evening. A test was being made preparatory to the public flight announced for 11 o'clock today. Robert DeFalca, a balloonist, was placed in the aeroplane and a balloon had raised it eighty feet in the air when a sudden south breeze struck it and caused it to careen. The jolt threw DeFalca against the delicate constructed machine and his shoulders snapped one of the main ribs. This caused the aeroplane to lose its equilibrium and strike the earth in a lop-sided fashion. It was found that one of the rear wings was broken in the fall. DeFalca was unhurt.

At last accounts the balloon, which was cut free, was speeding northward and farmers in wagons were giving chase. Professor Montgomery was doubtful as to whether his bird-like contrivance could be repaired in time for tomorrow's exhibition.

FOLK WILL COME TO SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—Governor Folk has accepted an invitation extended by the California Promotion Committee to visit California on his return trip from Portland, where he goes to celebrate Missouri day, September 14. He will arrive in California between the 15th and 20th of September. A telegram was received yesterday by the California Promotion Committee to the effect that there will be six in the Governor's party.

Governor Pardee will act in his official capacity in the reception to Missouri's Governor. The entire reception to Governor Folk will be of an official nature, but the public will be invited to participate in any functions that may take place.

SULTAN YIELDS TO FRANCE

Makes Formal Apology For Imprisoning Bouzian.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—The Foreign Office was highly gratified this morning to receive a dispatch from the French Minister at Fez announcing that the Sultan had yielded all points demanded by the French ultimatum.

The dispatch says that September 4, the day preceding the expiration of the ultimatum, the Grand Vizier, Sir Freedoul Garnit, accompanied by a retinue, went to the French legation, where he was received by the minister and his staff and the leading European officials.

The Grand Vizier then publicly presented a formal apology for the arrest of the French-Algerian citizen, Bouzain, and handed the minister the amount of the indemnity demanded for the imprisoned man, and also presented letters from the Morocco Ministry of Foreign Affairs, announcing that the Caid responsible for Bouzain's arrest had been removed.

The French minister answered, accepting the excuses and reparation given, and thereupon the preparations for the departure of the legation, preliminary to the enforcement of France's demands, were suspended. The Foreign Office here says the reparation is complete on all points and that the incident is closed, thus terminating the anticipated resort to coercion through the military and naval branches of the services.

TARTARS DESTROY VILLAGE

Soldiers to Cope With Desperate Situation at Baku.

TIFLIS, Caucasia, Sept. 7—All the naptha works at Baku have been destroyed and the factories and other works there are closed.

The military authorities are hastening measures to cope with the desperate situation at Baku. Artillery has been despatched from here by special trains.

The prices of benzine, kerosene and their residues have risen enormously. The present supplies will be exhausted in a few days.

The Tartar movement in northern Caucasia is said to be directed principally against the government.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 7.—The desperate condition of affairs at Baku is shown by a telegram from the Governor of Baku, who has sent an urgent despatch to Tiflis, saying that his troops are surrounded by Tartars and will inevitably be overwhelmed unless immediately relieved.

BAKU, Caucasia, Sept. 7.—The principal fighting is not in Baku itself, but at Balakhan, where hundreds have been shot by the infantry and artillery and where 1000 were killed or wounded during a desperate attack on the military camp and provision depots. The troops sustained few casualties. A large number of workmen barricaded themselves in the Balakhan hospital.

The soldiers began the attack with rifle fire and then stormed the hospital and completed their work with the bayonet.

TIFLIS, Sept. 7.—The manager of the Mantashoff Company telegraphs from Baku that the Bibleat plants have been burned out, that the depots of the Caspian Company have been destroyed and that the Christian workmen are surrounded by thousands of armed Tartars.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 7.—The oil wells at Balakhan, Sabunto and Nonani, near Baku, have burned out but the fire continues at Bibiebat. The city council of St. Petersburg is preparing to use coal at the water works instead of naptha.

PREFERS PARENTS TO HUSBAND

Because his wife would rather live with her parents than her husband Charles Pett was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from Amelia Pett this morning by Judge Ellsworth. They were married at Temescal in 1900 and four years later Pett decided that he could no longer live with his wife in the same house with her parents so he decided to move.

He secured apartments at 4401 Piedmont avenue and then asked his wife to come and live with him there. She, however, refused to do this and she has since continued to live with her parents although he says that he has asked her on several occasions to make her home with him. They have not lived together since July, 1904, and the desertion having continued for more than a year the decree was granted.

HARRIMAN PARTY IS ASSAULTED

Members Are Stoned by Mob After a Banquet.

R. P. Schwerin is Held Up and His Runners Attacked.

TOKIO, Sept. 6 (delayed in transmission)—The Harriman party had an exciting experience last night while attending and returning from a dinner given by Baron Sone, Minister of Finance. Dr. W. G. Lyle and J. C. McKnight were caught in a crowd on their way to dinner and were stoned, Dr. Lyle being struck by a missile and slightly hurt.

After the dinner was over a detachment of soldiers escorted the party to the legation. A crowd stopped R. P. Schwerin, vice-president of the Pacific Mail S. S. Company and assaulted his runners but they did not touch Mr. Schwerin.

A crowd menacing a neighboring police kiosk filled the space in front of the American Legation and hooted and jeered the soldiers escorting the Harriman party who with fixed bayonets charged the crowd, clearing the street and guarded the Legation throughout the night.

The dinner planned for tonight in honor of the Harriman party will not take place owing to the disturbed conditions in the city.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—At the Southern Pacific office it was said that no word had been received from Mr. Harriman from Tokio. His associates were of the opinion that the hostile demonstration was in no sense personal. Mr. Harriman's visit to Japan it was declared, was entirely for recreation and pleasure.

Baron Komura, after reading the Associated Press despatches telling of the riots in Tokio and the experience of the E. H. Harriman party, endeavored to reach Secretary of State Root. Mr. Sato said Baron Komura was extremely desirous of seeing Mr. Root at once, and asked that a message be sent to Mr. Root at once asking for an interview. What purpose Baron Komura had Mr. Sato would not say.

STRIKERS DELAY MAILS

NEW YORK, September 7.—The United States mail delivery wagons, whose operations in the great business and hotel center of New York city between the Battery and Forty-second street, were interfered with by a strike of 300 of the New York Mail companies' drivers last night and were only partly in operation today.

Assistant Postmaster Edward Morgan made the following statement today:

"The teamsters strike has in no way interfered with the rapid handling of first class mail matter. The outgoing mails were sent off on time and all mail matter from the incoming early trains on the trunk lines this morning was brought to the general postoffice in automobiles and other vehicles. The morning collections were made as usual."

WOMAN INJURED

A runaway horse, owned by David Baker of 1717 Adeline street, almost cost the life of Mrs. E. J. Woodruff about 1 o'clock today at Twelfth and Washington streets.

Mrs. Woodruff was knocked down just after she had left Kahn Bros.' store and while severely injured it is belived that she will recover, though considerably bruised. Mrs. Woodruff resides at 1418 St. Charles street, Alameda.

Baker's horse and buggy had been left unhitched at Thirteenth and Webster streets. Something frightened the equine which bolted westerly along Twelfth street. That thoroughfare was thronged and it seemed a miracle that more than one person was not run over by the wildly careering animal.

It happened that Mrs. Woodruff was the first and only victim. The horse knocked her down and paused in his flight. Policeman Jack Gardiner quickly conveyed Mrs. Woodruff into Collins' drug store. Dr. H. E. Muller was called in and made an examination of the injured woman's wounds. He decided that no bones had been broken though she was much bruised and shaken up.

Dr. Mary C. Plummer, the family physician of Mrs. Woodruff, was sent for and took charge of the injured woman.

Baker's runaway horse was captured after the buggy had been considerably damaged.

SMYSER ACCUSED

Taggart Says Act of Congressman Was Cowardly.

WOOSTER, Ohio, Sept. 7.—Captain Taggart was again on the witness stand in the Taggart divorce case today, and created a sensation when he accused ex-Judge Smyser, counsel for Mrs. Taggart, of using his position as a Member of Congress to obtain an order from the War Department that he (Taggart) be tried by court-martial. Captain Taggart lost his temper and said to Mr. Smyser:

"Your position in the matter was that of a scandalous villfier. The letter you wrote to the War Department was vile and mean. It contained misrepresentations. Your attack was cowardly and made under cover of your position."

Mr. Smyser had a letter that he had written to the War Department that Captain Taggart pronounced worse than the one that had been seen in the War Department's letters.

"You know, Mr. Smyser," continued Taggart, "that you said you would take advantage of your position as a Congressman, and your influence with the War Department, to beat me in this lawsuit."

"No, I did not ever say that," answered Smyser vehemently.

"Well, Mrs. Taggart said you did," replied Taggart.

After recess the letter was produced and read to Taggart, who looked at the letter book, and said there was no signature.

"I signed it," said Smyser. "It is not customary to put the signature in a copy book."

"Did you sign it as a Congressman?"

"No. I don't try lawsuits as a Congressman."

"Well, it looks very much that way," said Taggart.

BONDS FOR WATER SUPPLY

LOS ANGELES, Cal., September 7—This city is today holding a special election for the purpose of voting on the proposition of an issue of city bonds to the amount of $1,500,000, as a preliminary installment for the acquisition of a city water supply from the Owens River in Inyo county. This amount is to provide for the purchase of water rights in the Owens Valley and for surveys of a conduit route and incidental expenses. The bonds for the whole project which involves the expenditure by the city of a sum variously estimated at from $21,000,000 to $50,000,000 will be voted upon at a subsequent election. The distance from the Owens river headwaters where it is proposed to secure the city's supply of water, to Los Angeles is about 240 miles. It is estimated that the building of a concrete conduit of 30,000 inches capacity would bring to the city a water supply sufficient for a population of a million inhabitants. It is expected that the bond issue today will carry as there has been practically no opposition to the scheme. A two thirds vote is required.

MRS. E. A. LE FORT PASSES AWAY

A pioneer woman who has been identified with this section of the State for the past forty-five years, passed away at 7:30 o'clock this morning, in the person of Mrs. Edward A. Le Fort. The deceased was the wife of Edward A. Le Fort, who has long been a resident of this city, and one of the most devoted members of the Exempt Firemen's organization, having for many years been among the most enthusiastic volunteer fire-fighters in this city.

The end came at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. A. Hughes, 2286 West street.

Mrs. L Fort had been ill only a few days and had attained to her fifty-fifth year. She was a woman with gentleness of disposition and rare goodness of heart. She has left the impress of her character upon a number of people who knew of her modest worth and good deeds performed without hope of recognition.

She was the mother of a large family, seven of the members of which survive, namely, Edward J. Le Fort, Mrs. Rose Hughes, Albert J. Le Fort, Mrs. George H. Phillips, Thomas J., Peter Walter and John Le Fort.

The funeral will take place next Saturday from the residence of her daughter. The remains will be borne to the Church of the Sacred Heart, at Fortieth and Grove streets, where a solemn requiem high mass will be celebrated, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m. Interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery.

CONFESSED ONLY ON ONE POINT

SAN FRANCISCO, September 7.—Attorney H. V. Morehouse, counsel for Harry Bunkers, has returned from Sacramento, where he spent the day yesterday in conference with his client. Mr. Morehouse declares that the confession made by Bunkers to District Attorney Seymour did not go outside o fthe matter relating to the boodling operations of the committee on commisions and retrenchment in connection with the building and loan associations.

This statement upon the part of Bunkers' counsel will set at ease many gentlemen who have been led to believe that the imprisoned ex-Senator had revealed the "inside doings" in connection with a number of queer bills introduced at the last two sessions.

NO CHANGE IN THE REFEREE

Champion Jeffries Expects to be in the Ring September 9.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—The question of a referee of the Britt-Nelson contest is still agitating the minds of the sporting public. Everybody is expecting a prompt solution the moment big Jim Jeffries arrives on the scene, and he is expected to come in late tonight from Los Angeles. Jeffries does not know himself whether he will referee. He wired Manager Coffroth late last night, asking if he was expected to referee, and Coffroth replied in the affirmative.

"Then I shall be in San Francisco Thursday night," replied Jeffries. When he is on the ground the managers of the respective fighters can come together with Coffroth and Jeffries, and it is the opinion of the best posted sporting men that an agreement will be reached without further senseless parley.

Nolan, Nelson's manager, is still disposed to obstruct matters, but it is not thought that he has influence enough with Nelson to effectually block matters at this point in the preparations. In fact, Nolan has lost a great deal in the eyes of the sporting public by his tactics in refusing to accept Jeffries after having once accepted him. His own defense is: "The fact that Britt is such a favorite in the betting don't look right to me."

Meanwhile the sale of seats goes on at a lively rate. There are hundreds of men from cities far and near already on the scene and the out-of-town attendance is a very large factor in the record-breaking crowd that will be at the ringside next Saturday. There will be a remarkable gathering of sporting writers and sporting authorities from all over the United States will be at the ringside.

From New York and Boston to the Pacific Coast almost every large city has sent its sporting writers to pass judgment on the merits of the two sturdy boxers, and certainly there will be no lack of variety in the accounts of the battle set before the reading public all over the United States.

Britt and Nelson have practically finished their hard training grind. They have reached the stage where the question of weight is no longer an element in their training, and all attention is being paid to the importance of keeping "on edge" until the gong summons them to the fray. Both are in as perfect condition as it is possible to put two normally perfect youthful athletes. The loser of the coming contest cannot hope successfully to claim defect in condition as an excuse for defeat.

The amount of money in the hands of the promoter from the advance sale of seats is now so large that that fact alone would strongly operate against any serious hitch in the carrying out of the arrangements. Manager Coffroth has already taken in close to $45,000, and confidently asserts that when the men enter the ring next Saturday afternoon the prize for which they will contest will amount to $70,000, the record amount in history of ring contests.

The betting today remains unchanged —10 to 7, with Britt the favorite. There is no great activity, however, in the betting owing to the uncertainty as to the choice of the referee.

BOY IS HORRIBLY SCALDED

FALLS INTO TANK OF BOILING WATER AND LEGS ARE BADLY BURNED.

Terribly scalded about the legs, Joe Lopez, a sixteen-year-old boy, was taken from the plant of the California Canning Association to the Receiving Hospital this morning. He had slipped into a tank of boiling water. His right leg from above the knee, the scald extending the full depth of the water in the tank, and the left leg about the knee, were denuded of skin. He was treated at the hospital by Steward Harry Borchert, who did the limbs up in bandages of oil and sent the boy to his home at 1503 Fifth street in a buggy sent by the canning company for this purpose.

In explaining how the accident happened Lopez said: "I watch the tins that are put in the boiling water to see if any air is escaping. If I see bubbles coming from a can I know that it is not air-tight, and I have a pair of big pinchers to take hold of the tin and pull it out so that it can be soldered again. I had two tanks to watch, so they fixed up a plank on the top of the tanks for me to walk on so that I could go from one to the other quickly. In some way I slipped off the plank and my right leg went down into the water. I tried to jump out, but slipped, and my other leg went in. I couldn't do anything but just scream, and they took off my clothes and brought me up here."

While the burns extend over considerable surface, it is believed that with care no serious illness will result and that he will quickly recover.

Invitations have been sent out broadcast, and it promises to be one of the most interesting entertainments ever held on this side of the bay by the Americans. There will be a short address delivered by Brother Bachelor of Lorin Assembly, on "Old Glory." Brother Homer, past chairman of Garfield Assembly, No. 16, will also speak. Sister May B. Adams will preside at the piano.

TRIED TO SHOOT HIS EMPLOYER

Henry Thomas, former employe of ex-Chief of Police Louis Schaffer, will probably remain twenty-eight days in the City Prison. Judge Smith this morning sentenced Thomas on two charges—$50 fine or twenty-five days in jail for carrying a pistol, and $6 fine or three days for drunkenness.

Thomas, who is a colored man, had been discharged by Schaffer. He then went on a spree, bought a pistol and announced that he intended to shoot his former employer. His arrest followed.

WILL TOUR IN MANY STATES

A. J. PILLSBURY WILL MAKE INVESTIGATIONS FOR GOVERNOR.

September 6, 1905.

Editor TRIBUNE—Dear Sir: By request of Governor Pardee, and upon authorization of the State Board of Examiners, the secretary of the Board, Mr. A. J. Pillsbury, will make a trip of inspection to various public institutions in other States. Starting at once, he will go as far East as Boston, and will visit the prisons, reformatories, hospitals, homes for feeble minded children and schools for the deaf and blind in a dozen or more of the most advanced States. The Board of Examiners will not be put to any expense on account of this trip, the necessary expenses having been otherwise provided for.

The general purpose is to study the public institutions of America with the view of ascertaining what, if anything, they have done to teach the public institutions of California, and especially along the following lines:

1. Home finding for children free and fit to be placed in homes to be reared as own children are reared. California is now aiding in the support of about 1000 such children at a cost of $75,000 to $100,000 yearly, and the burden should be lightened, if possible.

2. Reformatory industrial education for delinquent minors, especially with the view of ascertaining the educational advantage of the industrial training afforded.

3. Model orphanages, with the view of ascertaining what is practicable in the way of industrial training in such orphanages.

4. Care of epileptics and the best that is being done toward effecting their cure.

5. What is being done toward remedying the physical defects of children where such defects handicap their intellectual progress or render them unattractive.

6. What is being done in the way of industrial training of blind children and to what advantage to such children.

7. Model penitentiaries, especially such as are manufacturing articles for the use of other State institutions.

8. Adult reformatories, with reference to what they are doing in the way of teaching trades and in returning delinquent persons to civil life, equipped to be self sustaining and self respecting.

9. Homes for feeble minded children, with the especial view of ascertaining what is being done in the way of mental and industrial development, with the view of making them as nearly self sustaining as possible.

10. Insane asylums, with the especial purpose of finding what is being accomplished in the way of restoring sick minds to health and sanity.

11. The cottage system of maintaining public institutions.

12. Whatever else that can be learned by the way that can prove of advantage to California and its institutional life.

Mr. Pillsbury's plans contemplate visits to sixty or seventy-five different public institutions, and from time to time he will make brief reports embodying his observations and conclusions. It has been arranged that copies of these reports shall be sent to the officers of such California State institutions as will naturally be most interested in them.

Inasmuch as the matters which will be discussed in Mr. Pillsbury's reports will be of general public interest, it has been suggested that they be furnished also to the daily papers which express a desire to receive them. There is no doubt the reports will contain a good many things worthy of publication or which will suggest comment. Yours truly,

A. B. NYE,
Private Secretary.

HASSE RELEASED; OUT ON BONDS

Otto L. Hasse, who was taken into custody yesterday morning on indictments brought against him by the Grand Jury in relation to the alleged stuffing of stationery bills, secured bonds last evening and was given his liberty. There were four indictments and the bond had been originally fixed at $2000 on each count, but these were reduced to $100 each and Osgood Bros. went his surety in the sum of $4000.

OUST THE DEMON

A Tussle with Coffee

There is something fairly demoniacal in the way coffee sometimes wreaks its fiendish malice on those who use it.

A lady writing from California, says: "My husband and I, both lovers of coffee, suffered for some time from a very annoying case of nervousness, accompanied by most frightful headaches. In my own case there was eventually developed some sort of affection of the nerves leading from the spine to the head.

"I was unable to hold my head up straight, the tension of the nerves drew it to one side, causing me the most intense pain. We got no relief from medicine, and were puzzled as to what caused the trouble, till a friend suggested that possibly the coffee we drank had something to do with it, and advised that we quit it and try Postum Coffee.

"We followed his advice, and from the day that we began to use Postum we both began to improve, and in a very short time both of us were entirely relieved. The nerves became steady once more, the headaches ceased, the muscles in the back of my neck relaxed, my head straightened up and the dreadful pain that had so punished me while I used the old kind of coffee vanished.

"We have never resumed the use of the old coffee, but relish our Postum every day as well as we did the former beverage. And we are delighted to find that we can give it freely to our children also, something we never dared to do with the old kind of coffee." Name given by Postum Company, Battle Creek, Michigan.

Postum Coffee contains absolutely no drugs of any kind, but relieves the coffee drinker from the old drug poison.

There's a reason.

EXCITING HUNT IN NORTH

JUDGE NUSBAUMER TELLS HOW HIS PARTY KILLED A BEAR.

The following letter has been received from Judge Emil Nusbaumer, who is at present camping on his ranch known as San Saba, on the Sacramento River, in which he tells of a bear they killed, the pelt of which he has sent his wife by express:

"San Saba, Tuesday.

"I have been camping out twice since I wrote you last. The first time Jim and I went and stayed over night on the mountain between Flume and Meaves Creeks. We saw no deer. We found the 'spuer,' or track, of a panther. On the afternoon of the first day about 4 o'clock, 'Boots' and 'Kaiser,' who were at that time with me, 'Major' being with Jim, left me, following some tracks. I waited some time to come back, and then leisurely proceeded to our camp, assuming that they would follow me, as they have done a number of times before, but they did not come in all night.

"Next morning Jim and I struck out down the mountain and forded the river at the Sulphur Spring and went up on horseback over the tunnel and hunted for deer on that slope, but only saw two does, so we started home, arriving there about 4 p. m. We thought the dogs would be home when we arrived there, but they were not. We all felt very sad at their loss.

"About 7 p. m., however, Kaiser and Boots arrived, footsore, weary, thin and hungry, and were willing to eat anything. They even ate dry bread and cooked carrots. They must have had a very strenuous time alone upon the mountain searching for us. The next day, which was Friday, we all rested up.

"Saturday morning I went back to where we had tied our horses on the mountain about tunnel 11, and brought out my pocket knife, which I had forgotten there the day previous, and also hunted for an hour or so. I got home at 1:30 p. m., and at 3:30 p. m. Jim, Mr. Hayes and myself again started out for deer. We went up to the top, back of Leland's place, and camped at what is known as the 'upper spring' on Hazel Creek. We arrived there at about 6:30. We turned our horses loose. Jim rode Mary, I rode Ben, and we packed the old roan. We hunted for deer until dark and returned to our camp.

"Hayes and I busied ourselves building a fire and preparing for supper. We only took Major along on this occasion, Boots and Kaiser we thought had not yet sufficiently recovered from the hardships of the former trip. Mr. H. had two of his dogs along. While H. and I were busy about camp, Jim took a rope and sought the horses on the top of the ridge, which was not far away, intending to tie one of them to a tree until morning. Major went with him. When they were four or five blocks away from the camp, and as Jim came to an old fallen tree, and in the dark Jim ran right up against a bear who was snooping around the tree for ants.

"Jim made a run at the bear and set Major onto him, and Major courageously tackled him, and finally the bear, out of fear of Jim and Major, ran up a large tree. Thereupon Jim yelled for us to bring the guns, and built a fire around the tree. We soon arrived with a gun apiece and had a very exciting time despatching the bear. He proved to be quite a fine one. He was fat, and the pelt is very nice. Next day we killed a deer; it was in the morning, and it was down in a gulch, so we had to carry it out some distance, and when we got it to where we could get a horse to it we hung it to a tree. Next day we hunted a little more and then went after the deer. In order to carry it out, we had to cut it in two sidewise. When we got to the deer we found another bear had been at it, and nearly ate it all up. We got home yesterday afternoon about 2 p. m."

BREAKS LEG TRYING TO BOARD A CAR

In trying to board a through car at Ninth and Broadway last night, August Nilson, thirty-five years of age, and living at 765 Twenty-eighth street, slipped and broke his leg, besides sustaining other minor injuries. The car was traveling at a good rate of speed when he ran out and tried to catch the handle of the car. He got his hold all right, but his foot slipped in trying to spring on to the step, with the result that he was thrown heavily and his leg twisted in such a way that both bones were fractured. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where his injuries were attended to by Dr. Ewer, and at 3 o'clock this morning he was removed to his home.

CHINA ASTONISHED BY PEACE TERMS

PEKIN, Sept. 6 (Delayed in transmission)—The absence of fuller knowledge of the peace terms leaves the community much astonished as to the terms of the settlement. There is a general feeling that some understanding exists between Japan and Russia that has not been published.

Gain Strength for Work

In office and factory, shop, store or kitchen girls are at work all over this land, and, alas! far beyond their strength. Young women who work are especially liable to female ills. Too often the girl is the bread winner of the family and she must toil unremittingly, no matter if her back does ache, her limbs and abdomen throb with dull pain and dragging sensations, and dizzy spells make her utterly unfit for work. These are the sure signs of female irregularities which kill beauty and youth.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

builds health and strength for all women who work and are weary. It creates the vitality that makes work easy. From the thousands of grateful letters written by working girls to Mrs. Pinkham we quote the following:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to tell you the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier have done for me. Before I took them I was very nervous, had dull headaches, pains in back, and monthlies were irregular. I had been to several doctors and they did me no good.

Your medicine has made me well and strong, I can do most any kind of work without complaint, and my periods are all right.

I am in better health than I ever was, and I know it is all due to your remedies. I recommend your advice and medicine to all who suffer.

MISS ABBY F. BARROWS, Nelsonville, Athens Co., Ohio.

Oh, if American girls who work would only realize that they have but one life to live, and make the most of their precious health and strength!

Mrs. Pinkham extends to every working girl who is in ill health a cordial invitation to write her for advice. Such letters are always kept strictly confidential, and from her vast experience Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help you—and may save your life.

SALVATION ARMY ATTACKED

FRENCH CATHOLICS NEAR MONTREAL FIGHT PROTESTANTS.

MONTREAL, Que., Sept. 7.—The French Catholics in St. Louis de Mole, a northern suburb of the city, attacked the newly established Salvation Army station there, and seriously injured some of the salvationists.

As the police force at St. Louis de Mole is very small, some of the English speaking residents went to the rescue of the salvationists and a pitched battle followed.

More trouble is expected tonight, as the Protestant residents are organizing to defend the salvationists and will be aided by members of some of the English Protestant militia corps.

HOLDS BUSINESS MEETING

LEGISLATIVE BODY OF THE GRAND ARMY IN EXECUTIVE SESSION.

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 7.—The first meeting of the legislative body of the thirty-ninth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, began at 10 o'clock today at the Broadway Theater.

With the exception of a few minutes, during which State and city officials welcomed the old soldiers to the city formally, and responding speeches were made by Commander in Chief John B. King and others, the sessions today were secret.

It did not take long for the encampment delegates to get down to business.

Engaged people should remember, that after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided, by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years, my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." GREAT CIRCUS WILL BE HERE ON MONDAY

WENTWORTH TRIO, WITH BARNUM & BAILEY'S CIRCUS.

Rose Wentworth, whose cleverness as an equestrienne has won the admiration of thousands who attend the performances of the Barnum & Bailey circus, comes by her ability legitimately, for her father, and many of her ancestors for several generations back, were well known circus performers.

This dainty little woman of the sawdust arena has not, however, depended upon her pedigree for her reputation.

She has won it by persistent application and by giving her work a grace and finish that few artisans acquire, even after many years of endeavor.

Miss Wentworth is not only clever, but she is also pretty and attractive, and her gowns and picture hats are triumphs of the modistes' and milliners' art. This year in conjunction with Harry Wentworth and Fred Derrick, she is presenting a unique riding and driving act, in which two horses and a cart are utilized.

In the finale of the act, one of the horses and the cart are discarded and a whirlwind finish is given.

The beauty of the finale is enhanced by colored electric lamps, which are cleverly arranged on the trappings of the horse. Miss Wentworth is rehearsing another novelty riding act, which will probably be seen during the Barnum & Bailey engagement in Oakland, Monday and Tuesday, September 11th and 12th.

PROHIBITION WORKERS TO TAKE BRIDES

Engagements of Mrs. Charlton Edholm and Miss M. A. Thompson Announced at Reception.

Besides an unusually interesting program at the meeting of Oakland Prohibition Alliance last night, two surprises were sprung upon the unsuspecting assemblage in the announcement of th approaching nuptials of Miss M. A. Thompson, the prominent W. C. T. U. and prohibition worker and formerly manager of the Occidental Publishing Company to a prominent business man of Seattle and also that of Mrs. Charlton Edholm, author, newspaper woman and purity lecturer to Col. Frank Sibley, of Chicago, one of the most distinguished prohibition speakers in the country. Both these ladies have made a great name for themselves in their different lines of activity and most happily did the great assemblage of friends in the spacious parlors at 662 East Twelfth street, receive these unexpected announcements.

State Chairman Taynton presided over the meeting. After a song by the Alliance, under whose auspices the meeting was held, prayer was offered by Rev. Baker of the Eighth avenue M. E. Church. Then a solo was sung by Mrs. Schultz. Prof. S. P. Meads, was introduced and with an exceedingly graceful, witty and hearty manner announced Mrs. Edholm's approaching wedding. Some few were expecting this but the announcement of Miss Thompson's engagement which was made by Mr. Williams was a decided surprise to all. After an intermission for congratulations the program was resumed.

Rev. George Morris, another old acquaintance of the principal figures of the evening put everyone into good humor with a witty talk, followed by an impressive speech by Rev. A. T. Needham, pastor of the First M. E. Church of Alameda and Miss Thompson's pastor for several years. Then Miss Thompson herself was called upon and kept the friends greatly amuse by her explanation of how it all happened and how she proposed to be the head of the new home.

Brief talks were also made by Rev. L. L. Abbott, Mrs. Teats, Mrs. Van Osdel, and Messrs. Dale and Nead, representing the new Venango work.

Miss Thompson will be married on Sept. 23 and Mrs. Edholm on September 28, Miss Willard's birthday. Miss Thompson will begin her honey moon at the Eotold's Temperance Congress in Portland, Oregon, and Mr. and Mrs. Sibley will attend the Long Beach Conference, September 28, 29 and 30, where they will meet friends from all parts of the State. Col. Sibley was formerly State Chairman of the Prohibition party of California, and was one of the co-laborers with and the author of the life of John B. Finch, the greatest of the Good Templar leaders.

NATIVE SONS TO GO BY BOAT

CONTRA COSTA PARLORS HIRE STEAMER TO TAKE THEM TO CAPITAL.

POINT RICHMOND, Sept. 7.—Tomorrow evening the Native Sons of the county, making up the five parlors in Contra Costa, and their friends will leave on the steamer Mary Garrett for Sacramento, where they will take an active and prominent part in the monster celebration of the admission day festivities. It is always the custom for the river boats to make both the going and the coming trip by night, and people have never been presented the opportunity of seeing any of the country through which they are passing.

This year the Native Sons have taken this into consideration, and the trip that has been planned will be one of the most delightful and enjoyable that any person could possibly take. The trip to Sacramento will be made by moonlight, and coming home the trip will be made during the day time.

The steamer will carry about 300 people and already all of the tickets have been disposed of, with the exception of about fifty. The fare for the round trip, including lodging while at Sacramento and meals will be $7.50, much less than if a person went by train and stayed at the hotel. There will be no liquors aboard the steamer, no rowdies will be allowed, and all those who go may be certain that their trip will be a pleasant one.

The boat will stop first at Crockett and reach Martinez at 7 p. m., and then proceed to Antioch, arriving there at 10 p. m., where the Richmond and Pinole contingent will be taken aboard, having arrived by the Santa Fe train. The steamer will arrive in Sacramento that same night, and remain there during the festivities and until Sunday morning when it will depart on the return trip.

TRUSTEES MEET.

The Board of Town Trustees met in regular session in the office of the Promotion Syndicate Tuesday night, all members being present. Minutes of previous meetings read and approved.

C. W. Brown made written application for office of City Engineer. On motion application was placed on file.

Ordinance No. 12 relating to passage of ordinances was read and adopted.

A resolution appointing Marshal Harry Livingstone as Street Superintendent and Pound Master at a salary of $30 per month and additional bond of $1000 was read and on motion adopted.

An attempt was made by Trustee Frank Critchett to modify the ordinance relating to peddlers passed at the last session of the Board, but after discussing the matter at some length no action was taken, but it is presumed the Trustees will take the matter up at the next meeting.

Whereupon the Board adjourned until Friday evening.

ASK BIG DAMAGES.

The initial step in the bitter fight between the farmers of Benicia and the Selby Smelting Company has been taken and papers asking for almost $10,000 damages have been served on the president of the company by Attorney Frank McGowan of San Francisco.

These damages represent the demands made by C. B. Deming, an aged farmer of Glen Cove, for injury to grain and livestock alleged to have been caused by the smelter fumes. The aggregate amount of damage asked by the farmers of the district is about $78,000.

A jury will be selected early in October to try the case, and upon the verdict rendered hinges the liabilities of the Smelter Company. If damages can be secured in this case, the farmers are confident of victory in the others also.

HOLD-UP MAN HELD.

Thomas Mullaney was placed under $1000 bonds by Judge Hall yesterday for attempting to hold up John C. Goncalves, the proprietor of a restaurant near the S. P. depot. The holdup is alleged to have occurred in the kitchen of the restaurant Monday night. Goncalves says Mullaney drew a butcher knife on him and demanded money. Two men in the house heard the racket and went to the rescue, whereat Mullaney got frightened and attempted to escape. Mullaney lives in Emeryville.

HE TALKED ABOUT THE CHURCHES

Last night closed two weeks of the special meetings now being held at the First Christian Church conducted by Evangelist Scoville, resulting thus far in seventy-nine additions, seven of the number taking the step last night. A feature of the meetings which has caused considerable comment is the large number of grown persons who have professed conversion, including many young men and young women, as well as quite a number of fathers and mothers.

Rev. Scoville spoke last night from the text "This Is a Faithful Saying and Worthy of All Acceptation, that Christ Jesus Came Into the World to Save Sinners." Rev. Scoville said that a good motto for the members of the church during the series of meetings would be "Each One Save One." He said Christ would accept any who come unto Him. The speaker complimented the fraternal organizations for the good they are doing in the world, but said they necessarily confine their membership to certain classes—they pick only the best men. None other can pass the black ball. Not so with the church. It is the only institution in the world which will receive anyone and everybody, hence its work is distinctive from every other institution. He stated it is true that some very fashionable churches would, like to receive only certain classes, and related a myth of which he had read to the effect that a crude young man presented himself for membership in a very fashionable church, and the pastor told him to go and pray and think over the matter for two weeks, that at the end of two weeks the young man again presented himself for membership, when the pastor told him to go and pray over the matter for another week, hoping to discourage him so that he would not return, but the young man returned, when the pastor asked him what the Lord had told him to do, to which the young man replied: "He said, 'don't be discouraged in your efforts to get into that church. I have been endeavoring to get in there ever since it was dedicated, and have not yet succeeded.'"

Rev. Scoville related an incident where the ladies of a certain church had purchased a fine carpet and, in order to keep it clean, were going to prevent boys from going into the room where it had been placed. Commenting on the incident the speaker exclaimed: "An ounce of a boy is worth more than all the Brussels carpets in Oakland."

The subject for tonight's discourse will be "The Wonderful Father and the Prodigal Son."

WOMEN OF WOODCRAFT.

Oakland Circle, No. 266, W. of W., held a very enjoyable and interesting meeting at Woodmen Hall last Saturday evening, and a great many visiting neighbors from distant circles were present.

New applications for membership were received and a great deal of new business was transacted.

On Thursday evening, September 13, the Circle will give a trolley ride to Haywards. A car has been chartered that will leave Thirteenth and Franklin at 7:30.

A fraternal visit will be made to Palma Circle at Haywards, and a very enjoyable time is anticipated.

All neighbors of Oakland Circle No. 266 are requested to join in and pay their respect to the circle who assisted in the organization of Oakland Circle No. 266.

On Saturday evening, September 30, the Circle will give a benefit for a worthy member in distress, who has been in the hospital for over two months.

Practical Denial of Justice.

Under our judicial system the interminable delays of the law amount to a denial of justice. One man may wilfully swindle another out of money, and the victim of this dishonesty submit to it because it will require from three to five years to obtain a final judgment. Thousands of instances no doubt exist where men have submitted to wrong and injustice, simply becaues the judicial machinery is wholly inadequate to the task imposed upon it.

We have a Supreme Court, composed of a Chief Justice and six Associate Justices. This judicial machine has always been in arrears with its work, not because the judges were lazy or incompetent, but because the number of cases presented for judicial determination was far in excess of the capacity of the court to hear and determine.

The people of the State, by an amendment to the Constitution, created three District Courts of Appeal, and made them courts of final resort in certain cases. We now have practically four Supreme Courts, comprising sixteen judges. As opinions are given by an individual judge, and heard and concurred in or dissented from by his associates, we have practically sixteen judges writing opinions and decisions in cases on appeal. The equipment would appear to be adequate to the demands made upon it, and it would certainly be if each of the judges were in the vigor of life.

If the judicial machinery now set in motion fails to accomplish the purpose aimed at it will be because men are elected or appointed to positions on the District or Supreme bench who have passed the meridian of their intellectual energy. We may reasonably look for wisdom in clear-minded old age, but we cannot reasonably expect the highest efficiency. Conscientiously discharged a judicial function is the very drudgery of intellectual labor. An individual may have the judicial experience and the profundity of learning and yet possess but a minimum of capacity for labor. To perform a large amount of either intellectual or physical labor requires strength, and we do not associate strength with age.

What is needed is men in the prime of life, or at least not beyond the meridian of their intellectual or physical vigor. It is less than ten months to the nomination, and less than fourteen months to the election of nine judges. If the three District Appellate Courts are to accomplish what the people of the State intended by amending the Constitution, the nine judges selected should none of them be beyond fifty years of age. The efficiency of the judicial machinery is vastly more important than the personal consideration relating to the choice of judges. The candidate who is past seventy is interposing his personal ambition and his private interest to the prejudice of the public good. The man who at seventy is qualified to sit on the bench of an Appellate Court having final jurisdiction, should have acquired at least a modest competence, and therefore does not deserve to be pensioned with a salary simply because he finds it easier to sit on the bench than to practice law. The candidate who is disqualified by age or feebleness to practice his profession creditably is equally disqualified to sit on the bench. Sixteen judges should be equal to the task of deciding all cases on appeal within a reasonable time, and they will be equal to any emergency only if they have not passed the meridian of their powers and become enfeebled by age.

The theory is now advanced that Walter Scott, the "Death Valley Croesus," has obtained his wealth from buried Wells-Fargo treasure chests. It remains to be seen whether the bar-rooms and railroad companies which have been the chief beneficiaries of his eccentricities will refuse to accept further contributions on the ground that the money is tainted.

A woman is accused of having perpetrated a number of recent hold-ups in Golden Gate Park. Her undoubted previous experiments upon her husband in all probability made the work both pleasing and easy.

A nephew of M. Witte yesterday murdered a woman and then committed suicide. It has not yet been learned whether he was jealous of the notoriety achieved by his distinguished uncle.

Ralph Rose, the California athlete, has achieved new honors by putting to flight five thugs who attacked him in a Seattle barroom. His assailants may have believed his prowess to be limited to the athletic field. They now realize that Rose, in any other place, is just as strong.

Food economists at Yale experimented on a body of United States soldiers in order to prove that a saving of 50 per cent can be made in the bulk of food taken into the body. There is nothing new in either their methods or deductions. During the Spanish War the United States Commissary Department made similar and more extensive experiments tending to a saving of 100 per cent. The only persons who refused to acknowledge the success of the demonstration were the soldiers.

The Tokio Riots

The dissatisfaction of the Japanese masses with the terms of the Treaty of Portsmouth has taken material form, as prophesied in these columns before the signing of the compact. Rioting has begun in Tokio, and while the authorities have thus far been able to prevent serious damage to property, the clashes between the police and the angry mob have resulted, as far as reported, in two deaths and more than five hundred casualties.

It was hardly to be expected that the expression of popular disgust would be limited to words. The anticipated satisfaction of wringing from Russia an enormous war indemnity appealed more than anything else to the Japanese masses, among whom cupidity is more than an ordinary failing. Those lacking the education to understand the real advantages gained through the peace compact see only that Russia has triumphed in spite of a thrashing, and find in sticks and stones the only means to register their protest.

Next in importance to the sentiments of the rabble, which must be eradicated by force, comes the attitude of those who, while intellectually able to grasp the theory of relinquishing present monetary gain for future prosperity, are depressed because of the financial situation and the unsettled business conditions which impend. These saw in the payment of indemnity immediate relief, and now violently criticize the Government for having failed to enrich its badly-depleted coffers. They lose sight of the productive power and energies of the nation, and their pessimistic anticipation of hard times overshadows their better judgment. It is they who declare the country to have been humiliated, and advocate change of ministry and even refusal of the ratification of the treaty of peace.

It devolves upon the conservative element, by an immediate campaign of education, to effect a change of sentiment. There can be no doubt that the country at large will approve the settlement when its terms are thoroughly understood. While there may be more or less turbulence in the forthcoming Diet, the forcing from office of the Katsura Government is hardly to be anticipated. The war was not fought for the purpose of securing an indemnity, and it will not be long before the Japanese, as a whole, will realize that the nation, by industrial and commercial development, will rapidly recoup itself for the cost of the late unpleasantness.

It Proves Too Much.

National communism, in the way of public appropriations for private benefit, has made rapid progress in the last few years. Government is becoming a universal "good thing." The Jeffersonian doctrine that Governments govern too much is already obsolete. The prevalent idea is that the Government may be applied to for expenditures wholly devoid of national significance, and possessing distinctive local features only.

The one argument relied upon to secure Government appropriations in the interest of private property is that when taxable values are created by Government expenditures of money, notwithstanding such expenditures inure to private benefit, the public is compensated If this argument is admissible there appears to be no reason why the Government should not make every citizen rich, upon the theory that the creation of values in property in private hands would augment the assessment roll and that such augmentation would compensate the public for the money expended. The fallacy of this argument is so apparent that it is very doubtful whether it is ever honestly employed. Enfeebled intelligence may be deceived by the speciousness of the argument, but its employment proclaims either intellectual limitations or moral turpitude.

The current employment of this fallacy relates to the reclamation of a million acres of swamp and over-flowed lands for the benefit of the private owners of such lands at public expense and upon the theory of creating taxable property. It is proposed to expend $24,000,000, two-thirds of which is to be paid by the State and Federal Governments for the purpose of creating $100,000,000 of value in property to be owned by private individuals. A better and bolder scheme than this, and one promising better results, is very easily conceived. There are two millions of acres of land in the Sacramento valley which under irrigation would be worth from $100 to $150 per acre. On the basis of what has been accomplished by irrigation in other sections of the State the irrigation of two million acres of land in the Sacramento valley would invite and support at once a population of at least 500,000 people. It will not cost $24,000,000 to place these two millions of acres of irrigable land is under efficient irrigation, and when the irrigation system is completed the land will be worth two hundred or two hundred and fifty millions of dollars, and five hundred thousand inhabitants who would very soon occupy it would possess at least $50,000,000 more of taxable personal property.

But a still safer scheme for the investment of public money would relate to the construction of houses and buildings in the well-established and growing cities of the State at public expense. There is no more reason why the National and State Governments should expend moneys from their treasuries to create value in private property in the way of farms than there is in favor of building houses for individuals in cities. The owners of swamp lands possess no "divine right" to secure aid from the Government or the State to enhance the value of their lands from $2 50 to $100 an acre, and no greater right than the individual citizen residing in the cities has to ask Federal and State contributions to the proportion of sixty-six and two-thirds per cent to erect a $2,000,000 building for his private use on the theory that such expenditure brings into existence taxable property. No reason can be assigned for the reclamation of swamp lands in private ownership that would not be equally applicable to the reclamation of the plains land of California from aridity at public expense.

If the State and the general Government desire to create taxable property the sensible proceeding would be to condemn the swamp lands of California, take them at their present valuation, reclaim them at a cost of $24,000,000, by this means bring into existence the $100,000,000 of values which are promised as a result of this reclamation and then sell the land, converting the proceeds into the public treasuries, thereby admitting all citizens to an equal participation in the benefits arising out of such public expenditure.

If this reclamation scheme had not been cunningly devised by the swamp-land owners of this State it would have possessed this feature at the outset. Any individual approaching this subject from the purely disinterested standpoint would have perceived the absurdity of the proposition to add value to private property by squandering public money, and would have proposed the absorption of the land to be reclaimed, in order that the public might enjoy the benefit of the increment of value. But the scheme was conceived by the large swamp-land owners who sought to avail themselves of the current disposition to enlist the Government in every conceivable private enterprise in order to secure the reclamation of their lands at public expense. The argument relating to the restoration of the navigability of the rivers and the creation of taxable property is merely a manifestation of plausible cunning on the part of the promoters of this gigantic fraud.

SOME DAY.

Be hopeful brother, don't despair,
Be not bowed down with carking care,
The sun will shine, the skies be fair
Some day, Some day.

Though rough the road, the pathway steep,
And stormy winds around you sweep,
Still, if you faint not you shall reap
Some day, Some day.

This life is not a losing fight,
'Tis writ, "At eve it shall be light."
The clouds will lift, the skies be bright
Some day, Some day.

Take courage then, press bravely on,
Life's fitful race will soon be done,
And palms of victory be won
Some day, Some day.

BALLOONS TO-MORROW

A MEMORY'S SYSTEM.

(Boston Journal.)

Forget each kindness that you do
As soon as you have done it;
Forget the praise that falls to you
The moment you have won it.
Forget the slander that you hear
Before you can repeat it;
Forget each slight, each spite, each sneer
Wherever you may meet it.

Remember every kindness done
To you, whate'er its measure;
Remember praise by others won
And pass it on with pleasure;
Remember every promise made
And keep it to the letter;
Remember those who lend you aid,
And be a grateful debtor.

Remember all the happiness
That comes your way in living;
Forget each worry and distress,
Be hopeful and forgiving.
Remember good, remember truth,
Remember heavens' above you,
And you will find, through age and youth,
The joys and hearts to love you.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY

WEDDING AT THE LAYMANCE HOME

MISS AIDA LAYMANCE BECOMES THE BRIDE OF E. H. DODGE.

Last evening at half past eight o'clock Miss Aida Laymance, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Laymance, became the bride of Edward Hall Dodge, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dodge, of Alameda.

About 200 guests were present at this ceremony and the spacious Laymance home had been converted into a floral bower for the occasion.

The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Raymond Brooks, under a rustic bower of boughs, with clusters of pink and white asters and pink satin ribbon, tied in true love knots.

The prevailing color scheme was pink and green, and the large drawing-room was beautifully decorated with Indian bamboo and festoons of pink ribbon, knotted and bearing quaint baskets overflowing with blossoms.

The bride's gown was a beautiful creation of satin messaline and point lace. She wore a long veil and carried a bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Blanche Laymance was maid of honor and wore a pale green brocade messaline, made in princesse style, and her bouquet was bridesmaid roses.

The charming sextette of bridesmaids were gowned alike in pink mousseline, made with transparent yokes, and each carried an armful of tiger lilies. They included Miss Alice Pontius, Miss Anna Munger, Miss Alma Heitman, Miss Edwina Crouch, Miss Anna Leimert and Miss Julia Williams, all school friends of the bride's at Mills.

James A. Chase of San Jose attended the groom.

Mrs. M. J. Laymance wore a handsome gown of point lace and chiffon, with diamond ornaments.

The setting for the wedding was one of the most elaborate of the year. The reception hall was decorated with huckleberry foliage, and hall and drawing room were lighted with pink shaded candelabra. The library was decorated in green and gold, huge sun flowers and woodwardia ferns being used with splendid effect.

An immense marquee had been erected on the lawn, where supper was served, and the decorations were most elaborate. Ferns, bamboo and pink flowers were again used, and the bride's table was decorated with white carnations, wedding tulle and knots of the pink satin ribbon.

An orchestra furnished music during the evening and many toasts were given the popular bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Dodge have gone on a honeymoon trip and on their return will make their home in Alameda. Both families are prominent and the young people have a host of friends to shower congratulations upon them. They received a large number of beautiful and costly wedding gifts.

AT DINNER.

Mrs. I. A. Beretta was hostess Tuesday afternoon at a charming dinner planned as a birthday compliment to Mrs. W. A. Schrock. The table was decorated with pink sweet peas. At the card game after dinner the prizes were secured by Mrs. Scott and Dr. Morse.

Mr. and Mrs. Beretta's guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Schorck, Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bull and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wellbye.

OAKLAND CLUB.

At the meeting of yesterday of the Oakland Club the design for a new pin was accepted. The new club pin is to be a circle bearing the inscription, "The Oakland Club—1890," and inclosing a tiny oak tree, which rests on a bar on which the word "Service" is inscribed. The club colors were changed from lavender to green and gold showing in the new pin.

The program yesterday included "Vacation Reminiscences," told by various club members, songs by Miss Jennie Shelley and clever monologue by Mrs. H. C. Capwell.

FOR BRIDES-ELECT.

Miss Charlotte Hall entertained today at a delightful little luncheon planned for Miss Bessie Haven. The table was decorated with a mass of bridesmaid roses with knots of pink tulle, and the guests included Miss Haven, Miss Katherine Brown, Miss Evelyn Hussey, Miss Fanny Plaw, Miss Louise Hall.

Mrs. Anson Blake was hostess at an informal luncheon and musicale today for Miss Juliet Garber. A dozen guests enjoyed the pleasant affair.

BLAIR-CENTER.

Ralph Kirkham-Blair, son of the late Lady Kirkham Yarde-Buller, will be married this evening at half past eight, in the Unitarian Church, Alameda, to Miss Josephine Leanor Center. The Rev. Christopher Ruess will perform the ceremony.

It will be a pink wedding, and the church decorations and the gowns of the attendants of the bride will harmonize with that color. Miss Alice Maurer will be maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Roberta Clay, Miss Laurilla Murdock, Miss Sarah Clapp and Miss Mary Pond.

Allen Wright of San Francisco is to support the groom, and the ushers will be Julius Landsberger, Hamilton Murdock, Harry S. Pond and Richard Frost Phelps. Following the church ceremony there will be a reception at the residence of Mrs. Adam Heberer, 1000 Paru street, to which a few intimate friends have been invited. After returning from their honeymoon the couple will reside on Paru street.

WEDDING TONIGHT.

The wedding of greatest interest to society today is that of Miss Ada Kenna and Murray Orrick, which will be solemnized at the home of the bride's mother at half past six. Owing to illness in the family of the bride, this wedding, which was to have been one of the most elaborate of the year, will be simple in detail.

The bride will wear a gown of white messaline over white satin elaborated with rare lace. Mrs. Irving Burrell, sister of the bride, as matron of honr, will be gowned in pink liberty chiffon over taffeta, and Miss Elizabeth Orrick, the bridesmaid, will be gowned in white.

The Kenna home will be attractively decorated with pink and white blossoms, the color scheme chosen for the wedding, and the Rev. Father Kenna, the bride's uncle, will perform the ceremony in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. An informal reception and wedding supper will follow.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrick will return to Oakland after a honeymoon trip.

QUIET WEDDING.

MORGAN BUYS TICKETS FOR FETE

NEWPORT, August 30.—Among the contributors for tickets at $1 each for the tuberculosis fete at Mrs. Fred Vanderbilt's "Rough Point" estate recently was J. Pierpont Morgan, who sent his check for $200. The Morgan check was for the same amount as one from a Boston woman, Mrs. Thomas C. Richardson, daughter of the late Richard Baker. Alfred G. Vanderbilt subscribed $100, the same as Mrs. William Astor.

Other subscribers included Mrs. Charles Astor Bristed, Miss Therese E. Iselin, Miss Grosvenor, Mrs. E. H. G. Slater, Mrs. Samuel Powell and Mrs. C. L. Robinson, wife of the Rear Commodore of the New York Yacht Club. All arrangements for the fete are about completed, and it is expected that about $10,000 will be the net profit.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 7.—Hannah Jones, a negress, who has come into Alabama from Columbus, Ga., is 109 years old, and has thirty children, among them ten sets of twins. She asks for help to get to one of her numerous offspring in Birmingham. All of the children are living, she says.

CUPID HIDDEN IN RAREBIT AND CROQUETTE OF A PRETTY YOUNG TEACHER

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The witchery of a chicken croquette and the magic of a dainty rarebit figure prominently in a romance that culminated in the marriage of Julius Anson Kuck, Jr., and Lena Williams Johnson.

Mr. Kuck is the managing man of the People's Security Company, at No. 277 Broadway, and the bride is a Willimantic girl, highly connected throughout New England.

But the bride has far more to commend her than mere social position. She is a past master in the exalted art of cooking; a skilled concoctor of luscious sauces, a very wizard of the griddle.

Graduating from Rorer's School of Cookery in Philadelphia, Miss Johnson lectured for years on the domestic science, and was finally called to the chair of cookery in the internationally famous school at Washington, D. C.

It was there and then that Mr. Kuck met her. At the time, he was a law student in the Columbian University, a slave to his books and unknown in the gay society of the capital city.

But one eventful day a chance friend invited him to a "chafing dish" reception. The presiding genius of that memorable function was Miss Johnson.

Intently the youthful law student watched as she deftly beat the eggs for the rarebit and eagerly drank in her words as she explained each step in the progress of its artistic manufacture.

In bursts of confidence Mr. Kuck has since confessed to his intimates that that golden rarebit sealed his fate.

The finishing touch to his heart, however, was administered by a chicken croquette, the piece de resistance of the menu at that memorable "chafing-dish" reception.

He ate it, then walked home on air—Kuck was in love. The subsequent details of his courtship were of the conventional character.

Miss Johnson proved to be as socially charming as she was professionally expert. Her heart was as light as her biscuits, and her wit as crisp as pie crust.

Kuck was no laggard in wooing, and the gifted lady of his love was not obdurate.

They were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Abbie Johnson, at No. 36 Windham street, Willimantic, Conn.

It is needless to add that Miss Johnson cooked her own wedding cake.

GIRL'S LOVE IS NOT COOLED BY THE MISTREATMENT OF FORMER SWEETHEART

SEATTLE, Sept. 7.—Charles Perry, part owner and manager of the Rainier-Grand Hotel, has been made the defendant in a breach of promise suit filed in the Superior Court for $25,000 by Grace E. Newhall. Under a promise of marriage the woman alleges that the hotel man induced her to give up her position as cashier in the Delmonico restaurant and accept support from him. The plaintiff is the daughter of J. E. Aull, the owner of the Delmonico restaurant on First Avenue.

According to the complaint the agreement to marry was made in March, 1905, and since that time the plaintiff avers that she has been with Perry a large portion of the day and night until the time he refused to fulfill his promise of marriage which was about August 5.

Mrs. Newhall declares that the refusal of Perry has caused her much humiliation as their constant association and the statement that they would be married has attracted the notice of their friends.

MUSICIAN FOR WEDDING MARCH.

The woman alleges that since the engagement she has kept aloof from other persons and acted towards Perry as his affianced bride. Along with the complaint the woman through her counsel filed a list of some sixty interrogatories for the defendant to answer. These interrogations cover every detail of the alleged relations between the parties to the suit.

In the interrogatories Perry is asked if he did not tell Mrs. Funk, the housekeeper at the Rainier-Grand Hotel, that he and Grace Newhall were to be married and that she could play the wedding march. The defendant is asked as to visits made with the plaintiff to many hotels and cafes throughout the city.

When seen yesterday at the Hotel Wahlfirst, where she is rooming, Mrs. Newhall said:

"I only brought the suit after Mr. Perry refused to do right by me. He promised to marry me; induced me to leave my position in my father's restaurant; persuaded me to accept support from him until such time as he could get his business affairs so arranged that he could marry me; led all my friends to believe that he would marry me; and brought about an estrangement between my father and myself. I first met Mr. Perry while acting as cashier at my father's restaurant.

STILL WILLING TO MARRY.

"He used to come there for his meals. We became well acquainted, and in March he promised to marry me. After that we were together nearly all of the time that he had from his business. We took meals at Grant's cafe, the Butler cafe, the Rathskeller and many other places. We were seen together by our friends and to them he held me out as his future wife many times. In August he refused to marry me, and then our friendship ceased.

"Since the commencement of the suit Mr. Perry has attempted to compromise it but I refused. I want my character vindicated by a court. I don't want his money. I just want to be put in the right light with my friends. I have a diary showing every place that we were together and for this Mr. Perry offered me $50 the other day in the presence of my lawyers. Even the way that he has treated me I love him so much that I would forget it all and marry him tomorrow."

SUMMER DISSIPATION DESTROYS HEALTH OF THE YOUNG GIRLS IN SMART SOCIETY

"It isn't winter, it's summer dissipation that breaks the society girl's health in her town season," declares a society leader. "You admit that my daughters are the picture of health. Well, they wouldn't be if I let them spend their summers as so many of their girl friends do.

"These friends live through the summer months at a constant concert pitch of excitement. No matter how late they are up at night, they are out early the next morning, ready for tennis, golf, driving, walking, etc. The entire morning is filled with pleasuring, usually of a most active kind. Afternoons are the same, and then it's evening again—the long, gay summer evening.

"No system of nerves can stand it without strain. If the strain does not show in summer, it will in the winter. Girls start out their town season without the reserve of health that they are supposed to have been laying by. When a nervous collapse, partial or complete, comes, the dissipations of winter are blamed.

WINTER SEASON LESS WEARING.

"It's 'Oh, Alice has had too gay a season; she must go to the Bermudas,' or 'May has crowded in too much this winter. This is the penalty for being so popular,' etc.

"If you made the suggestion that this summer has not been a healthful one parents would raise their hands at the absurdity of the notion. Most probably they would refer to their daughters' tanned faces as evidence of their well-being.

"There is no more foolish idea than that tan is necessarily an evidence of fine health. Just because women who lead a fine, healthy, outdoor life in summer get tanned is no reason why women who get tanned lead a fine, healthy, outdoor life. They look as though they did, simply because we have got into the way of associating tan with health. But it must be remembered that tan can be acquired simply by exposure of face and hands to the sun for a day.

"I say that the gayest of winter seasons is not so hard on a girl's health as the usual gay summer, because in town if a girl's up late she makes up her sleep the next morning. Town mornings are stupid. There is no temptation for her to rise early. All the other women in her set are resting just as she is. Men are all down town at their offices. There is nothing to do but rest until the late morning.

"Country mornings are not stupid. A girl feels that she sleeps late at a risk. While she dozes, trying to recuperate from the long dance of the night before, a rival may be off on a charming trip. She cannot sleep—or thinks that she cannot.

"I have trained my daughters to believe that they will not lose much by making up for evening fun in morning sleep. If they do now and then lose a good time through my hard and fast rule, they see that they make up in good general health for the disappointment."—N. Y. Sun.

'BALL OF THE BEASTS" IN PARIS OUTDID NEWPORT

A social sensation of Paris in June, 1885, was the "Ball of the Beasts," given at the Hotel Monaco on the second of the month, by the Princess of Sagan. An account of this event is given by Count Louis de Perigord and Camille Groskowski in a paper in the September Century, beginning a series on "Histrionic Palaces of Paris." The story will interest those, if there are such, who have supposed that possibly the society of New York or Newport had led the way in the matter of weird entertainments.

Astonishment began at the foot of the grand stair, which was guarded by sixty footmen bearing the arms of Talleyrand; for from the bottom one could see at the top of the steps, beneath a cluster of electric lights, the Princess of Sagan audaciously costumed as a peacock, entirely haloed about by great gold and silver plumes and aigrets against a dark blue and old rose ground, all gleaming with precious stones on her hair, her shoulders, her entire gown. As her guests arrived and bowed before her the bird of Juno spread, by the action of a concealed spring, a grand peacock tail of many colors, which as it fell again formed about her a cloud of sparkling stars.

By the side of the mistress of the house, assisting to receive the guests, was Monsieur de Buffon himself (Baron Seilliere), in the classic garb of the castellan of Montbard—embroidered sleeves, frilled front and round curled wig. The solemn man was almost out of place in that astonishing zoological procession which filed past into the drawing rooms.

Some costumes less striking were in vivid contrast to these. For there were to be seen a tigress (Baroness de Rothschild), an owl (Comtesse de Chevignee), a bat (Baroness de Salignac-Fenelon), a crow (Marquis de Barbentane), a duck, many ducks, a whole flock of ducks—Counts de St. Pierre, de Bethune, de Gargon. Singular taste! It would be superfluous to enumerate all the cocks which shook their wings at that ball—they could not be counted. There was even one lady dressed as a grouse cock (Mme. Michel Eqhrussi.)

The prize for original costume fell by right to the Comtesse de Contant, who came as a donkey—unless, indeed, the first prize be claimed by the Vicomtesse de Lousac travestied as a lobster, or by Mme. Henry Schneider as a serpent, or else by Mme. de Moninet as the ocean—a vision of vaporous blue tulle, over which fell fish nets full of fish and decorations of seaweed and branches of coral.

The princess made no direct reply to the sarcasm called forth by her ball, but presently the hotel was opened to a grand kirmess for charity. This is remembered not less distinctly than the carnival.

The next day the princely park was found all ravaged, trod under foot, without one flower; but a great number of hovels and lodgings "flourished" with a little good fortune, and there were many children who dried their tears.

WOMAN ENJOYS AUTO RIDE ON HER 105th BIRTHDAY

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The fire of determination burning in her deep-set brown eyes, and a half humorous, half surprised look playing about the wrinkled corners of a mouth that must once have had "woman's tenderest curves," Mrs. Elizabeth Hunt, 105 years old, snuggled in the rear seat of a big snorting 24 horse-power automobile that whizzed across Brooklyn Bridge. She was celebrating her extraordinary birthday by taking the first auto ride of her life. Sitting in the machine with her was her grandson, a granddaughter, a great-grandson, and a great-great-granddaughter.

"The funniest thing about it all is that they seem to expect me to be surprised," said the sweet old lady when the machine with its first, third and fourth generations stopped for a moment at the Manhattan end of the bridge, and Mrs. Hunt looked through the trees of the park to catch a glimpse of City Hall, about the only piece of architecture in sight that could claim to anything like her own remarkable age.

"But when a woman gets to be 105 and does not feel like calling herself old, you needn't expect her to be surprised at anything," she continued. "It's the young folks that get excited over new things. I have seen a good many new things come—and go, too." Then her eyes caught sight of the Subway entrance and she leaned over to point it out to her granddaughter, Mrs. W. E. Greene, who was to accompany her on her trip to Meriden, Conn., where she is to visit relatives.

Remarkably strong, with all her senses apparently sound as they were at sixty, Mrs. Hunt had determined to enjoy this birthday by going to Meriden; and her grandson, William M. Simonson, of Hicksville, L. I., had offered to take her to the Grand Central Station from her home, at No. 407 Adelphi street, Brooklyn, in a closed carriage. Mrs. Hunt was indignant at once.

"What, when all you young folks are riding around in automobiles? No, if you take me over, you will take me in your touring car, and let me enjoy it in the same way as I would have ninety years ago, if they had had these new-fangled machines then."

In the party that came from Brooklyn were Mr. and Mrs. Simonson, Mrs. W. E. Greene, Miss Clare Wickes, and Master John Simonson Jr., great-grandson of Mrs. Hunt. He is a stout boy of twelve, and the apple of the old lady's eye.

The great-grandmother of 105 years bore the trip calmly and with wonderful fortitude and seemed particularly bound not to be surprised or astonished into any show of emotion.

When a big six-foot policeman came forward at the station and offered to lift her out, she smiled, placed her hand on his shoulder and stepped down to the sidewalk.

Mrs. Hunt was born in Lancaster, Pa., of German-English parentage, and came to Brooklyn in 1827 with her husband, Jacob Hunt. Some one asked her yesterday if she was born on a farm. "No," she answered, merrily, "I was born in a town. I may look green, but I am not so green."

KANSAN IS SHOCKED BY ABBREVIATED SKIRTS

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 7.—J. W. F. Hughes, adjutant general of the Kansas National Guard, has returned from the battleship launching at Philadelphia and a visit to Atlantic City badly shocked. Of course, it was at the latter place where the general sustained the strain to his nerves.

It was the military man's first experience of salt water and bathing suits. He started for the beach, with Governor Hoch and the other members of the Governor's staff, but when he saw a bevy of women at the Philadelphia and Reading Railway station wearing bathing suits he halted.

"It is actually shocking," said the hero of many Fort Riley sham battles, in telling his experiences today.

"There were those women, more than a mile from water, and wearing those ridiculous clothes. Why, actually, their stockings and their skirts did not meet by several inches. I took one look at them and caught the first train back."

"I reckon all Kansas was watching us while we were back East," he continued.

"I never saw such carpets as they had on our rooms. I took off my shoes and just walked through the halls and rooms for an hour to enjoy letting my toes go into the carpets. It was fine.

"I only found one cheap thing while I was gone. That was a place where they offered all the soda water a person could drink for five cents.

"Everything was high back there. I know something about chickens, and they charged me $1.90 for a half fryer.

"But I was there to represent Kansas, and I just planked down the cash without bolting an eye."

A cigar is made either good, bad or indifferent in the grading, fermenting and blending of the tobacco leaf.

The American Cigar Company, because of its enormous output, is able to more closely and extensively grade the qualities of its leaf tobacco. It is never necessary to "use up" cheaper grades in any cigar. Each grade is kept by itself—not packed against a medium or ordinary grade, to absorb their poorer qualities during fermentation.

RECRUIT

CIGAR—5c.

"Fit for any Company"

Following this precise grading, with its new, scientific and exclusive processes of fermenting and blending, the American Cigar Company produces cigars of uniform character—a rich, smooth, perfectly-blended aroma, not obtainable by any other method.

The "Recruit" Cigar is typical of the superior excellence of flavor and aroma produced by modern science correctly applied.

Stationed wherever good cigars are sold.

OBJECT TO OIL ON STREETS

TEAMSTERS DO NOT LIKE THE PROPOSED NEW DEAL.

The teamsters and team owners of Oakland have taken up arms against the proposed oiling of macadamized streets and they threaten to secure an injunction against the city to prevent the use of crude oil for that purpose. The Express and Draymen's Association today sent the following communication to the Board of Public Works:

"Oakland, Cal., September 1, 1905. To the Honorable Board of Public Works:—Reading in the Oakland papers the Mayor's recommendation to have the macadamized streets of Oakland oiled, and later the Street Committee's authorizations of same, caused a stormy protest from the team owners of Oakland and the Express and Draymen's Association of Alameda county.

"This latter organization forwarded a protest to the Mayor some time ago, in regard to the Oakland Traction Company, oiling the streets on its right of way, as a nuisance and injurious to vehicles and horses. Crude oil used on streets before it is absorbed is ruinous to paint and varnish wagons and carriages and causes no end of trouble to horses, to say nothing in regard to the damage to carpets by being carried into houses on shoes.

"It is admitted that crude oil on streets alleviates the dust, but causes an untold amount of damage to team owners and house-wives.

"Oil is injurious to macadam and creates a spongy surface instead of a hard solid road-bed.

"The oiling of streets in general will necessitate the use of smaller wagons, the hauling of smaller loads and the employment of more horses, and any driver of experience will endorse good macadam first, last and all the time in preference to an oiled road.

"We would, therefore, as an organization of team-owners of licensed wagons and taxpayers of Oakland, using the streets every day, protest very strongly against the use of oil on the macadamized streets of Oakland, and would respectfully ask that your Honorable Body hear our petition and make ample investigation before any further action is taken in the matter. Very respectfully, yours, "The Express and Draymen's Association,

"S. A. WILLIARD, Secretary.
"O L. FRENCH, President."

The Twenty-third Avenue Improvement Club petitioned for electric lights to be placed at the corner of Talcott and Irving avenues and at Dennison and Kennedy streets. The petition was referred to the Committee of the Whole.

DRAYMEN PETITION.

The petition of the Express and Draymen's Association for the board to refrain from oiling the streets was taken up by the board, but as there were no representatives of the association present the matter was laid over one week, with the request that a committee of the protestants be present at the next meeting.

The specifications prepared by City Electrician Babcock for the laying of the wires owned by the city underground were referred to the Committee of the Whole. The matter will be taken up early next week.

It Plays Itself

LONDON'S PLAY DRAWING WELL

Last night Jack London's masterpiece, "The Sea Wolf," was again presented at Ye Liberty Playhouse before a large and appreciative audience. The scenery in all the acts is beautiful and the stage direction entirely worthy of recognition The scene of the play takes place at first in the waters of San Francisco Bay, and every one of the characters are in some way connected with the life of the Golden State.

Frank McVicars played the role of Larsen and gave a creditable piece of work in his conception of that role.

Ola Humphrey again scored another success by her clever acting, playing the role of Maud Brewster. Her portrayal of that character was perfect. Landers Stevens as Humphrey Van Weyden was good, bringing out everything that was in that character. The comedy in the play is furnished by the cook, Mugridge, and Mrs. Coghill, a lady who is fond of officers, who was picked up in midocean with Maud.

"The Sea Wolf" will be the attraction at Ye Liberty Playhouse for the remainder of the week, with the usual matinees on Saturday and Sunday.

CANDIDATES FOR THE U. C. FOOTBALL TEAM

BERKELEY, September 7.—After two weeks of practice the 'varsity men have decided upon the positions that they will try for on this year's team. The candidates are numerous, and there will be no trouble in securing second eleven material to hammer against the 'varsity men, when heavy practice begins. The most striking thing about the men trying for the various positions is the large number of comparatively light men trying for line positions.

Following is a list of the men who are out for 'varsity positions and the positions for which they are trying:

Osgood, '06, halfback; H. H. Matthiesen, '06, end; J. W. Barnicott, '08, guard; F. D. Merrill, '06, end; A. F. Ross, '07, guard; C. R. Zacharais, '07, end; E. R. Collasch, '07, tackle; E. FRESHMEN WORKING HARD.

The freshman squad was given heavier work than on any former practice. The linemen were put against each other in heavy plays and made to do the right thing under any sort of play through the different line positions. The improvement in a number of the men has been noticeable. Many of them started in for football two weeks ago never having played a game in their lives. Some of these raw men are showing up remarkably well, and making rapid strides toward learning the essential rudiments of the game. Whether they will be able to keep their heads and apply what they are learning in the first few games remains to be seen.

While the linemen in one part of the field are doing all in their power to learn the important things about the line positions and how they should be played, under the guidance of Doctor Griffin, Coach Knibbs attended to the backs and run them through different positions rapidly. Each back trying for a place was given a close drill in the duties of his position in all kinds of play.

EMPIRE GUN CLUB WILL MEET AT ALAMEDA POINT

On Saturday and Sunday next, Sept. 9 and 10, at its trap shooting grounds at Alameda Point, the Empire Gun club will hold one of the biggest flying target shoots ever held in this country. More than 20,000 blue rock targets have been ordered for the occasion and three magazine automatic traps installed. All the targets and trap paraphernalia used will be of the latest type to insure the greatest speed in handling the large entry lists expected for the various events.

An attractive program has been arranged for the big meet and copies of the program have been sent to all shooters on the coast. The program schedules six events for each day's shoot, 105 targets for the first day and 100 for the second. Four pool and two merchandise events are listed for the first day and three sweeps and three merchandise events are scheduled for the second day. The main merchandise events listed for the first day is class shooting and has twelve separate classes so arranged that any ordinary shot who can score a possible 9 out of 20 targets is sure of a good prize. On the second day all three merchandise events are high gun distance handicap affairs and permit of re-entries which will give the poorer shooters a chance to come in again when a poor score is made.

Besides the numerous and valuable prizes offered in the different events a beautiful silver loving cup is offered by F. H. Mayer, for highest average for the two days' shoot and $5 each is to be given to the two next highest averages. To the first shooters who have completed the two days' program with lowest averages $2.50 in cash and one year's subscription to "Western Field" will be given.

The 100-bird Bekeart challenge cup will also be a feature of the shoot if the regular scheduled events can be disposed of in time.

There is also a probability of a five-man team race for the cup recently offered by the Vallejo Gun Club and for which the Santa Rosa Gun Club and the Golden Gate Club are tied. It is proposed to shoot the tie off at the meet and renew the race for the cup which must be won three times by any club before it become permanent property of that club.

The following well-known sportsmen will assist on the general committee to see that the shoot is carried to a successful conclusion.

James P. Sweeney, president Empire Gun Club; T. L. Lewis, secretary Union Gun Club; Edgar L. Foster, secretary Golden Gate Gun Club; H. Recklefson, secretary Blue Rock Gun Club; Robert Van Norden, secretary Millwood Gun Club; J. W. Jeffreys, secretary Antlers Gun Club; J. W. Elias, secretary Vallejo Gun Club; F. W. Hesse Jr., captain Santa Rosa Gun Club; William Hansen, captain Hercules Gun Club; W. Sink, captain St. Helena Gun Club; Dr. A. M. Barker, San Jose Gun Club; Charles Reams, captain Napa Gun Club; C. F. Whalen, Mountain View Gun Club.

KEEP CLOSE WATCH ON THE COLLEGE ATHLETES

Announcement has just been made from an authoritative source that the athletes of Western colleges are to be submitted to a rigid examination of their summer records, says a writer in "Town Topics." Especially will this investigation cover those who have played summer baseball. A close watch has been kept throughout the summer, and many an athlete will find that his summer outing has been passed under the surveillance of some duly appointed representative of the college authorities. In some cases it is expected that this will lead to disbarment, and not a few of the football teams of the Middle West are apt to find their personnel changed to a marked degree. I am thoroughly in sympathy with any reasonable and equitable plan to purify college athletics, but I hardly see the justification for putting spotters on the trail of students. The rule against summer baseball with semi-professional teams has been in existence for some time, and it would have done no harm to call the attention of all athletes in June to the fact that a strict adherence to the letter and spirit of the rule was expected. At least, there should have been made some public announcement that watch for offenders against the rule would be made.

Thompson, last year's star guard at Andover, his transferred his allegiance from Yale to Cornell. There is no denying that Yale will be the loser, for Thompson has the qualifications for an unusually strong man. While on the subject of acquisitions, why did Doc Hildebrand leave for the West after his conference with Edwards and Kelley in regard to the Princeton eleven of this fall. We all recall that one of last year's star Nassau tackles was corralled in St. Louis but a short while before the opening of college. Is it possible that there are more of this calibre which Hillebrand can induce to wear the Orange and Black until the mid-year examinations convince the Princeton faculty that they are ineligible to be classed as students?

DETAILS OF THE RACE FOR THE VANDERBILT CUP

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The details for the international automobile race for the Vanderbilt Cup have been settled by the Vanderbilt Cup Commission.

The commission maintained its original decision that the race shall be run to the left. The contestants in the elimination trial to select a team to represent America will race to the left and the usual road rules must be observed in the race.

The principal rule is that a contestant overtaken must keep to the right, and in overtaking a car must keep to the left.

The elimination trial will be held on September 28, starting at 5:30 a. m. Drivers must be named by September 10. The international race will be run October 14, starting at 6 a. m. Drivers to be named by October 1.

Both trial and international races will be ten laps, or about 280 miles. The cars will be started one minute apart. The drawing for order of start for the elimination trial will be held at the Automobile Club of America, September 11, and that for the international at the same place October 2.

The course will be well oiled and 500 men will line the route to prevent accident.

Contestants will not be allowed to speed over the course except on days selected for racing, and racing cars will be permitted on the course only between 12 m. and 2 p. m., and must then be supplied with mufflers. Contestants may use touring cars at other hours to study the intricacies of the course.

The men who compose the commission also compose the Racing Board of the A. A. A., but the Vanderbilt contest was practically the only matter considered.

COFFROTH AND WILLIE BRITT ARE NERVOUS

Eddie Smith Tells of Meeting.

Sure of Fight.

BY EDDIE SMITH.

Last night Willie Britt rushed into Jas. Coffroth's office, called Mr. Coffroth to one side and had a long talk in regard to the fight. Willie, who was very nervous, exclaimed:

"Well, we have two fighters, a referee, a place to fight and the audience will be there, so I guess we will have a fight."

To this Coffroth—and he too was very nervous—replied:

"Never mind about the place or the crowd; you just have your fighter there by 1:30 p. m."

Willie then went out into the fresh air, bit a new cigar and stood still for ten seconds, which was about the longest time he stood still all afternoon.

Coffroth, too, is nervous about the affair and is wondering just how all this trouble will end.

I have always admired his coolness and it is due to the fact that he has such perfect control of himself that he has been so successful in handling large crowds, but in this case he is very anxious. Regardless of what anyone says, Nolan seems to be the coolest of the bunch. He was not around the sporting resorts last night and shows no disposition to settle the question as to who will be the referee. There is one thing they all agree upon, and that is that there will be a fight on September 9th, at 2 p. m., and that they will be there ready to go on at that time.

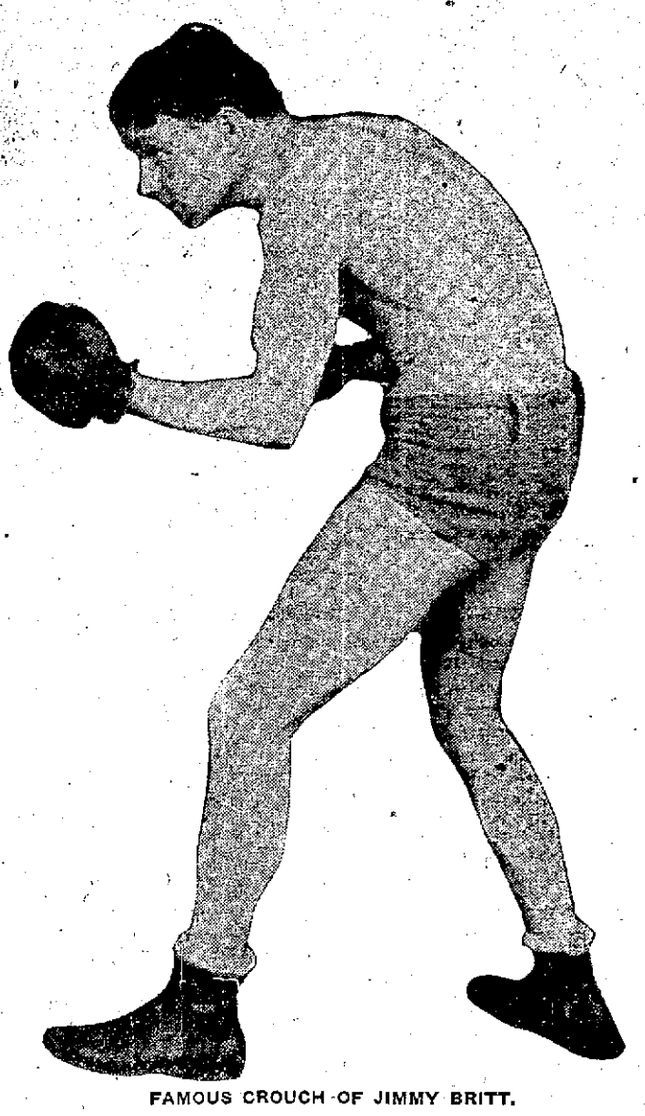

Jeffries, who will arrive here tonight, is just as likely as not to get sulky and say he will not referee a fight where one of the principals objects to him. To those who know Jeff, this seems very probable, as he is just that stubborn and proud, and once he makes up his mind not to referee the fight, a regiment of soldiers could not make him do it. As to the money, Jeff's valuation of a dollar is very small. He is not a money-maker, and never will be. Before he retired from the ring he turned down many a chance to make money that he might go fishing or hunting.

The one that suffered the most from criticism yesterday was Bob Masterson, who sent an article out here saying the fight was "fixed." How he could have the gall to be in Chicago and know nothing of the situation, except what he reads and receives over the wires, and say to the sporting public that the fight is a fixed one, is more than the sports can understand. There are some of the best sporting authorities in the country in California, and they can see nothing wrong except two foolish managers.

Nelson has trained hard and faithfully, and Britt is in the best physical condition I have ever seen an athlete enjoy. Besides this, one has only to visit the camps of the respective fighters, and see the anxious looks on the faces of the trainers and fighters, to see that there is nothing prearranged about the affair.

The one thing that is worrying the management is that Nolan, who has sold his interest in the pictures, will wrangle at the ringside until it will be then too late to take the pictures successfully. It makes no difference to him whether or not the pictures are taken, but I am of the opinion that Nolan will do nothing to prevent them being a success. He seems to be too much of a man for this, and, besides, he says that everything will be settled before the time for the men to enter the ring. A thing that still bothers Nolan is that Britt is still favorite in the betting, and that money is coming in faster on him than on Bat., but he fails to recognize the fact that all this talk of his objecting to this man and that man refereeing the fight, has made the ever-suspecting public feel that everything is not as well with Nelson as it might be.

James Coffroth is still making arrangements to take care of a large crowd, and he has no equal in California at this part of the game. He will have a regiment of police officers and ushers and every one will be sure to get his seat. The arrangements have gone along nicely, and it would be a grave offense for the fighters to balk at the last minute. But this is not probable. The men will fight and the crowd will see one of the hardest battles that has ever been held in the country.

FAMOUS CROUCH OF JIMMY BRITT.

Following are some additional opinions of the outcome that I have heard on the street and at the resorts:

Sid Wilson—Britt will win.

Dan O'Brien—Britt's father is a plumber, and as he has a little Irish blood in his veins, he will win.

Harry Boyle—Nelson is a tough nut, but Britt will crack him.

Capt. Anderson—Watch the Dane come down the home stretch.

"Cliff" Ireland—Tell my friends in Oakland that I am going to cash a bet on Britt.

P. Nelson—The fight is a hard one to pick, but I prefer Nelson.

E. P. Cook—This is a close fight, but I pick Britt.

Fred Vogt—Nelson will win in ten rounds.

Charlie Hall—It will be a grand fight. Britt will win.

Mike Degnan—The Irishman will win.

Sam Short—McDonald picks Britt; so I pick Nelson.

W. Fitzgerald—Nelson will come in and deliver the goods after about 25 rounds.

"Slim" Connolly—Britt is a footracer, but he will get tired, and Nelson will get him.

George Gross—Britt has the head, and will outgeneral Nelson.

RECORDS OF THE MEN WHO FIGHT ADMISSION DAY

Following are the records of Jimmy Britt and Battling Nelson, who will meet at Colma Saturday:

JIMMY BRITT.

In his professional career Jimy Britt has fought fourteen contests. In this list of fights he has lost but twice, and each of these times on a foul—once to Jack O'Keefe at Portland, Ore., and once to Joe Gans in San Francisco. His first fight out of Olympic Club circles was with Toby Irwin early in the year 1902. In his next three battles, with Tim Hagerty, Kid Lavigne and Frank Erne, he scored the only three real knockouts on his record.

After the fight he lost to Jack O'Keefe at Portland, he won the decision over Willie Fitzgerald in San Francisco. In a return fight with Jack O'Keefe at Butte he got a draw, and several months later took the decision from Charlie Sieger in San Francisco.

Probably the hardest battle of his careers was when he met Martin Canole at Colma, and in the twenty-fifth after an extra five rounds ordered by the referee, was given the decision. He won the decision from Young Corbett and, by defeating the Denver lad, earned his title as champion lightweight of the world.

After the wild fight with Joe Gans he was given the decision over Battling Nelson, and then defeated Jabez White. His last fight was with Kid Sullivan, whom he outclassed in twenty rounds.

BATTLING NELSON.

Since entering the ring, in 1896, Battling Nelson has fought seventy battles. Of these he has been returned the victor on forty-one occasions, having an enviable record of knockouts in his earlier fights. Nine times he has taken the short end of the purse, and has fought eleven draws. It was in his fight with Spider Welch at Salt Lake City, when he beat that lad in sixteen rounds, that his aspirations for championship honors first took a serious turn. This was in April of 1904. He next won from Martin Canole in San Francisco in eighteen rounds. This was in May, 1904, and two months later he beat Eddie Hanlon down in nineteen rounds. Then he fought Aurelio Herrera in Butte and won the decision, returning to San Francisco and defeating Young Corbett in ten rounds.

In December of last year, after a greueling fight, the Dane went down to defeat at the hands of Jimmy Britt, who was given the decision. Nelson then tried his hand in the six round bouts on the other side of the Rockies, where he battled first with Jack O'Neil, who managed to last the six rounds. Abe Attel was the next opponent, and the contest went the six rounds without a decision. Kid Sullivan of Baltimore also stayed six rounds.

GIANTS SHUT OUT THE SEALS

PORTLAND, Or., Sept. 7.—The Giants shut out the Seals in yesterday's game. San Francisco never had a chance to score. The feature was the pitching by Bert Jones, who allowed but one hit, passed but one man and struck out nine. Only two of the San Francisco team succeeded in reaching first base. The batting by McHale and Van Buren was excellent. Mohler, Wheeler and Nealon made a fast double play. McLain is out of the game for a week, and Conrad, in his place, proved a remarkable catcher. PAPE MAY BE STANFORD COACH

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Sept. 7.—E. V. Henley, president of the Stanford Boat Club, has received a letter from Alex H. Pape, the well-known San Francisco sculler, in which the latter offers to coach the Stanford freshman and 'Varsity crews in preparation for their races next season. Owing to the unsettled condition of the affairs of the boat club, the proposition will be laid over until next semester, when active work on the water will be begun again. Meanwhile, the work of the men will be confined to practice on the indoor rowing machines.

The boat club has decided to give a farce to remove the indebtedness of $700 incurred last season. The outlook for the coming year is considered bright, in spite of the financial embarrassments. In the spring Stanford will have three, and perhaps four, of the men who rowed last season, while three of California's crew have graduated. During the present semester the boat club will be in charge of a committee composed of N. P. Bryan, '07, chairman; R. D. Gardner, '07; F. Zimmerman, '07; F. W. Turner, '08, and R. H. Baker, '08.

BERKELEY, Sept. 7.—President James J. Hill, the railway magnate, has just presented the sum of $5000 with which to secure a special library of books relating to railway transportation.

This gift is the result of the interest created by the work of Professor Balthsar H. Meyer, of the department of economics of the University who has been appointed editor of the history of transportation which is to form a part of the economic history of the United States, the compilation and publication of which has been undertaken by the Carnegie Institution at Washington.

Before sailing for Europe, recently, where he is collecting material for a comparative study of European and American railroads Professor Meyer had occasion to interview Mr. Hill and the latter was so impressed by the importance of the work which Professor Meyer is undertaking, that Mr. Hill placed at his disposal this $5000 with which to begin the collection of books, pamphlets and other material that will be necessary for the preparation of this monumental work.

The collection will be placed in the University library, and it has been suggested that it be known as the "James J. Hill Railway Library," although this and other deails in regard to the disposition of the funds have not been settled owing to the fact that Professor Meyer is still in Europe.

The preparation of this important History of Transportation is expected to extend over a period of five years, and the Carnegie Institution has made a grant of $15,000 for the purpose of carrying on the work.

TO BE WELCOMED IN GREEK THEATER

Statistical Experts Will be Guests of University Tomorrow—Details of Reception.

BERKELEY, Sept. 7.—The University meeting will be held at 11 o'clock tomorrow in the Greek Theater instead of the Harmon Gymnasium. This meeting is held especially to welcome to the University the members of the association of officials of Bureaus of Labor Statistics, who are holding their twenty-first annual convention in San Francisco this week.

Dr. Chas. P. Neil, United States Commissioner of Labor, and the Hon. David Ross, the Illinois Labor Commissioner, have been invited to address the meeting.

Dr. Neil has recently been appointed by President Roosevelt to succeed as head of the United States Department of Labor, the Hon. Carroll D. Wright, who held that position for so many years through many successive changes in administration Dr. Neil who was professor of Economics at the Catholic University before his appointment to his present important post, is perhaps most widely known as the secretary of the Anthracite Coal Strike Commission, and for his successful efforts since then to keep peace between John Mitchell's miners and the coal barons.

Mr. Ross has long held the important office of Illinois Labor Commissioner, one of the most successful labor bureaus in the country.

The association whose convention brings these and other distinguished statisticians to the coast, is a small one, in number of members, but one wielding through its membership an enormous power. It is a voluntary association of the officials of the labor bureaus of thirty States, and the two federal offices, the Bureau of Labor and the Census Bureau.

The association in an unofficial way represents all that the States and the federal government together are doing in an administrative way to advance the interests of labor and capital and to solve some of the most important problems of the age.

The inspection of factories to see that the sanitary and their regulations, for the comfort and safety of employes, the enforcement of child labor laws, the collection of statistics and other information concerning wages, hours of labor, strikes, lockouts and other labor disputes, the settlement of disputes by arbitration and conciliation; these are a few of the more important of the many weighty matters intrusted to the care of these men.

The members of the association will come to Berkeley on an early train Friday morning. Will make a tour of the grounds and buildings under the guidance of the professor in Economics. At 9:30 o'clock they hold their regular session for the day in the large room in the Philosophy building, and go from there to the Greek Theater. The change in the place of the meeting is to give the distinguished visitors an opportunity to see the Greek Theater filled with students. In the afternoon the visiting officials are to be the guests of the Oakland Board of Trade.

ARGUMENTUM AD HOMINEM.

The conversation had become slightly personal.

"You lunkhead!" exclaimed the man with the rotund face. "If you had any conception of the properties of matter you would know that it has all the characteristics of what we call mind. Matter, sir, thinks! It thinks!"

"I wonder," snorted the other man, "what the rest of your face thinks of that big red nose of yours!"

PLIGHT TROTH

Culmination of a Romance at College.

BERKELEY, Sept. 7.—A college romance begun with the advent of the freshman class of '03, came to its culmination yesterday when J. Shirley Jones and Miss Tillie Brown were united in marriage.

The ceremony took place at the residence of Dr. Elmer E. Hall of the University, on Leroy avenue, Berkeley, and was witnessed only by relatives and most intimate friends of the contracting parties. E. E. Baker of the First Presbyterian Church of Oakland officiated.

The bride is a Southern California girl, the niece of S. C. Hammer of Long Beach and was a member of the class of '03.

The groom was also of the class of '03, having graduated with high honors from the Chemistry Department. He now holds a very responsible position with the Judson Powder Company. The young people will probably make their home in Berkeley.

PASSING OF CAMP MEETING.

A venerable American institution, the camp meeting, is on the wane. It is still far from dead, but those two know it best perceive most clearly that its sunset hour has come. As the old preachers of today recount in the past tense the experiences of the circuit rider, that pioneering apostle of Christianity to new communities, so the preachers of tomorrow will tell on occasions of reminiscence of the former glories of the hilarious camp meeting when people "got religion" and were not afraid to make a noise about it. Fewer and fewer of the strongest preachers attend the camp meetings. The more cultivated church members become the less taste they appear to have for this sort of "old-time religion." Plainly, the camp meeting is on the decline.—Philadelphia Press.

"CO-EDS." OF MASK AND DAGGER HAVE PLANS FOR BIG SHOW

PORTIA ACKERMAN. ELIZABETH ISABEL M'REYNOLDS. FLORENCE PARKER.

BERKELEY, September 7.—"What, ho, for the merry vaudeville show!" This is the cry of the maids who make up the Mask and Dagger society, the swell dramatic organization of the University where co-eds. reign supreme, and mere man is left at the door, outside, except by special dispensation of those who rule the destines of the aforesaid Mask and Dagger.

Now, the plans are being diligently considered by these dramatic co-eds. for one of the greatest, mirth-compelling, fun creating, joy inspiring, enormous, mastodonic, supremely magnificent vaudeville shows that ever added luster to their great dramatic stars of the 'varsity.

On September 22 the vaudeville will be in evidence. The place for its revealing has not yet been decided upon. And the bill of fare—Soft, good sirs! Shall fair maid wear her heart upon a sleeve, or tell to a cold world those pranks she eftsoon she is to play, on stage and before footlights?

Well, not by two or three spoonfuls of tea, and anything else you like to use as a by word. Those pranks will be practiced in secret. In secret will they be concocted. All shall be wrapped with a veil, and mystery is to cover the preceedings, as a cloud.

When the appointed moment shall arrive—

But that is another story.

Meanwhile those massive minds of the coeds, will be in action. Watch Miss Florence Parker and Isabel McReynolds, and Portia Ackerman, and Ann Thacher, and a few other luminaries of the Mask and Dagger, and then wait for the revelation.

Verily, 'twill be worth while, and that is no "dream of a Hungarian wash lady," either, according to those who know whereof they speak.

PRAISES WOLLE

Dr. Bade Believes in the New Professor.

BERKELEY, Sept. 7.—Dr. J. Fred Wolle, who was recently appointed head of the newly established department of music, will leave his home at Bethlehem, Pa., in a few days to come directly to Berkeley. He will arrive here about the middle of September, and will at once organize the work of his department, probably beginning work in his department this term.

Since Dr. Wolle's appointment was made known, President Wheeler has received communications from many prominent musicians congratulating him on his success in securing so able a man to organize the new department.

Professor William F. Bade of the Pacific Theological Seminary, who has known Dr. Wolle personally for more than twenty years, wrote of his success with the now famous Bach choir:

"To any one who knows J. Fred Wolle, his coming to the University of California is singularly auspicious for the cause of music on the Pacific Coast. The writer has known him more or less intimately for nearly twenty years, and has seen him climb the ladder of fame rung by rung. He is an indefatigable and enthusiastic worker, constantly striving to realize the noblest ideals of his art. The fact that he is easily the foremost student and interpreter of Bach in this country is a sufficient comment on his musical taste. The writer came to know him first when he was a young organist at the Moravian Church in Bethlehem, Pa., where he was to win his subsequent triumphs. He has been a student of Samuel P. Warren of New York and of Rheinberger at Munich. As it happened, he succeeded Peter Wolle, a member of the same family, and entered a line of illustrious organists and conductors, who for more than a century had made the Moravian Church noted for the best oratorio work in the country. He soon made his choir (a volunteer choir, by the way), the nucleus of an oratorio society which later became known as the now famous Bach choir. It must not be supposed that he accomplished what he did without a struggle. Certainly the town, with its distinguished history of choral activity covering more than a century and a half, furnished the environment in which a man with Mr. Wolle's musicianly qualities and genius for organizing could produce such a remarkable band of amateur singers as the Bach choir. Nevertheless, the utmost devotion to musical art and an immense amount of hard work were necessary.

"It will scarcely be possible for Mr. Wolle to do here immediately what he has been able to do in Bethlehem. It takes time to gather and train new musical forces. But with the support and co-operation of the music-loving people of Berkeley and Oakland (even San Francisco is not too far away), we may confidently expect him to make Berkeley a western Bayreuth of Bach: of all that is deep and soulful in music."

FAMOUS OLD DOG GIVES UP GHOST

BERKELEY, Sept. 7.—"Terry," the Kappa Alpha pet bull dog, died Monday night after a brief illness. Terry was a frequent visitor on the campus and created much excitement at stated intervals by engaging in "dog fights." He was lord of the campus, having gained this title by his many victories over his numerous rivals. But owing to old age his last fight was too much for him, and proved disastrous, leaving him with a large wound which caused his death. Terry will be missed by all who appreciate "campus dog fights," and the death of the heavy set white dog with K. A. on its back will be mourned for many days.

ROW IN CHURCH

Proxies Create a Furore at Meeting.

BERKELEY, September 7.—Proxies by the handful, in evidence at a meeting of rival factions of the First Presbyterian church last night, all used to decide the question of whether the church property was to be sold to the Methodists or not, created a scene not entirely dissimilar to that occasionally observed at political conventions, when proxies play an important and unexpected part.

The proxy holders, for the most part favored selling the church to the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, and they scored a decisive victory over the faction which strenuously opposed such a sale. The conservative folk believed the property should command a price of at least $30,000, and as this was practically prohibitive, adherence to that figure meant the retention by the Presbyterians of their property. The so-called "Liberal" side desired to sell the property and build anew in North Berkeley. The "Liberals" won, with the aid of a "barrel of proxies," a phrase employed by the disgruntled minority.

After the meeting, which was stormy at times and abounded in suggestions of "political scheming," and "wire pulling," et al, members of the minority were not slow to intimate that the proxies which worked their undoing in the hands of the opposition were obtained, in scores of instances from children, who, while members of the church did not really know what use was to be made of the proxies so easily obtained.

These allegations were strenuously denied today by J. C. Ford, a leader of the "Liberal" faction, who had a lot of proxies and used them to help along the sale of the church.

It was fair enough to use the proxies," said Mr. Ford. "Both sides have used them. We simply desired to have out a representative vote, and obtained it through the aid of proxies. Children's proxies were used, to be sure, but no misrepresentations were employed to get the proxies. The trustees were outvoted at a meeting of the congregation two weeks ago, when the board reported favoring the sale of the property to the Methodists for $22,500. We believed the majority of the church favored the sale, and proceeded to demonstrate it, a proceeding in which we were successful. The Methodists, supposedly will accept the $25,000 offer and the church will be sold."

ALAMEDA TRUSTEES IN REGULAR SESSION

High Light Towers Will Remain—Woman Injured Trying to Save Dog From Poundman.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 7.—The City Trustees held their regular semi-monthly meeting last evening. Regular bills amounting to $387.42 and special bills amounting to $1525.73 were ordered paid.

Chairman Forderer of the electric light committee reported that Professor C. L. Cory of the State University was testing the new generator to see if it comes up to specifications.

The Trustees decided, by motion, that the large light towers, in good condition, should be allowed to stand. The residents of the districts where these lights are now standing entered a strong protest against removing them. These poles have been considered unsafe for quite a while, but City Electrician Kahn is to make a careful examination of them.

Trustee Probst introduced a motion to provide five beds for the call firemen. These beds will be distributed among the different fire houses and the men will be able to respond to the alarms with greater alacrity.

The City Attorney was instructed to draw up an ordinance regulating the amount of gasoline to be kept in the storehouses throughout the city.

A communication was read from H. Mehrtens calling attention to the poor condition of the tracks and roadbed of what is called the narrow-gauge road. President Gorham said that as far as he knew the road was in good condition. Trustee Probst disagreed with him, saying that every joint was loose, the ties in poor condition, and that a wagon was liable to have its wheels torn off going over the tracks. The matter was referred to the Superintendent of Streets. He was also given permission to remove a hedge on Weber street which blockades the sidewalk.

The residents of Eagle avenue between Willow and Chestnut were given permission to improve the street by private contract.

The ordinance prohibiting the hitching of horses to trees will be strictly enforced hereafter.

She is now under the care of Dr. Morris Brown. Her limb has swollen to twice its natural size, but Dr. Brown says there is little fear of serious results.

ICE IN INDIA.

Dr. Wells a London physician, in 1818, in his published essay on dew, was the first to draw attention to the curious artificial production of ice in India. Shallow pits are dug, which are partially filled with perfectly dry straw. On the straw broad, flat pans containing water are exposed to the clear sky The water, being a powerful radiant, sends off its heat abundantly into space.

The heat thus lost cannot be replaced from the earth, for this source is excluded by the straw. Before sunrise a cake of ice is formed in each vessel To produce this ice in quantities clear nights are advantageous and particularly those on which practically no dew falls. Should the straw get wet it becomes more matted and compact and consequently a better conductor of heat, for the vapor then acts as a screen over the pans, checks the cold and retards freezing.

The Reliable GROCER

406 Fourteenth St.

Athenian Club Building.

Pure Groceries

Are a necessity. No one can afford to patronize an unreliable grocer. There is so much clever adulteration, so much substitution, so much "cheap" food on the market today that the ordinary consumer is not competent to be judge of it.

These are matters that must be left to the reliability of your grocer.

Russell's is known as "the reliable grocery."

M'LEAN FEARS LAW

HE TRIES TO SHIFT THE RESPONSIBILITY ON A DEAD MAN.

VICTORIA, B. C, September 7—Collector of Customs Newberry of Victoria today telegraphed to Captain McLean of the sealing schooner Carmencita that he had seized the 373 skins shipped to Victoria and asked McLean to come to this city Failing in this, the Canadian fishery protection steamer Kestral may be sent to seize the vessel One of the hunters of the Carmencita, named Walker, said this morning.

"J W Woods of San Francisco, one of those indicted because of alleged complicity in the illegal venture, went on board when the schooner was at Drake's Bay in March last and made final arrangements for the cruise. Woods has since denied that he had any share in the enterprise."

The hunter also stated that Bill Thomas, the dead hunter, was not the captain. McLean was in charge, but just before the death of Thomas Captain McLean had told all hands that Thomas was in charge of the expedition McLean had been advised from San Francisco of the action taken by the United States Government against the vessel and of the indictment against him, and sought to shift the responsibility McLean kept the news from the crew, but their suspicions were aroused because of his fear and flight whenever a steamer's smoke was seen.

When any vessel was spoken McLean took possession of any newspapers sent to the Carmencita and cut out any reference to his vessel In August the crew demanded to see what had been cut from papers secured from a whaler. Then the story of the Government's action became known and the crew refused further duty. McLean was in consequence obliged to return. The schooner is out of provisions.

It removes pimples and blackheads and cures sweaty or aching feet.

Sanozol Lotion was also the curative agent through which Dr. Fulton accomplished the marvelous cure of a case of Lupsus that attracted attention throughout the country, described in the Brooklyn Eagle of March.

Sanozol Lotion has been used to accomplish the now famous cure of skin cancer described in the New York World of March 9th.

TESTIMONIAL.

"I am happy to give you my testimonial. Indeed, I do not think I can say enough for the merits of Sanozol. I had been unable to attend to business for one year. Had suffered for three years before this My case had been diagnosed as Sycosis by eminent physicians I found no relief until I was advised to use Sanozol. I am now perfectly cured, and not even a suspicion of my old trouble remains. I can heartily recommend Sanozol Lotion to all afflicted as I was, and my family will use none but Sanozol soap for the toilet."

SAYS GRANT THE FRANCHISE

GEORGE H. LEE WANTS THE NEW COMPANY GIVEN A CHANCE.

Editor TRIBUNE—Why hesitate giving the Home Electric Company a franchise? There's room for both and more, too. Competition is the life of trade. The company thta will best serve us, we will stand by and encourage. Oakland wants more investors and more capital. The Home Company has proven its efficiency in other cities, two-thirds of 'phone users having two 'phones in our sister city, Los Angeles. I recollect the time when the electric light company had a hard time installing their service in San Francisco. How is it now? We should all work together. Merits and true worth will come to the front. We cannot afford to be side-tracked. In granting the Home franchise we have everything to gain and nothing to lose. Grant it by all means Yours always,

GEO. H. LEE,

Real estate, 455 Seventh street, Oakland.

Attacked By a Mob

and beaten, in a labor riot, until covered with sores, a Chicago street car conductor applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was soon sound and well. "I use it in my family," writes G. J. Welch, of Tekonsha, Mich., "and find it perfect." Simply great for cuts and burns. Only 25c at Osgoods' drug stores, Twelfth and Washington; Seventh and Broadway.

LAST WORDS FOR HIS NOBLE FRIEND

REV. WATSON'S TRIBUTE TO THE LATE ALEXANDER LEWTHWAITE.

At the funeral services over the late Alexander Lewthwaite held in the Eighth Avenue Methodist Church yesterday afternoon, Rev. J. W. Watson spoke as follows:

"My friends, we have come together on this occasion to pay our last tribute of respect to our departed friend.

"The great preacher, 'Esslesiates,' said 'It was better to go to the house of mourning than to the house of feasting,' for as we come into the presence of the dead and mingle our tears with those who mourn, we are reminded that we also are mortal and must pass on to mingle with those gone before. There, for a brief time at least, we form new resolutions to be better, and to live more noble lives. We are reminded that Life, the choicest of all earthly treasures, is very uncertain. The giver of the life may, without consulting us, send a messenger for it, when we least expect it.

"In fact, everything of an earthly character has an element of insecurity and uncertainty about it. It matters not what may be our calling, there is no agency that will undertake to secure success. Our life is frail, and we are liable to lose it, and for the retaining of it no sacrifice would be too great.

"A certain gentleman, in order to secure choice gems of precious value, traveled over mountains, crossing plains, and the ocean, and after years of labor, he returns, puts his gems in a suitable cabinet, to be admired by those who saw them. He was suddenly taken with an acute disease, and was informed he must die. His reply was, 'Give me a few more years of life's enjoyments, and I will give my all, as my life is the choicest gem I have.'

"There is an enemy to life known as Death. He is an universal enemy, and is no respector of persons—the rich, the poor, the aged or the young, are all the same to him. He is sent as a messenger without an invitation; he enters the home life, takes to his cold embrace our loved ones, and with his stately tread, he marches away, leaving sorrow and mourning behind him.

"Death is considered in general our great enemy. Yet, we must consider that through the gates or route of death our eternal and happy home above is gained.

"When death comes to one who for months and even years has suffered from the agonies of disease, he is more of a transplanting angel than an enemy. The Bible tells us there is but one step between 'me and death.' How solemn and yet how true is this statement. First, it is a certain step, and all must take it. Second, it is an uncertain step as to time and place. Third, it is a final and parting step. Fourth, it is a solitary step; we must take it alone. It is well that we all be prepared to take that last step. * * *

"It was my good pleasure to have intimately known our friend, Mr. Lewthwaite for nearly fifty years. And for twenty-five years we lived side by side as neighbors. I knew him and all the members of his father's family, as well as his own. We were closely allied as friends. And in all the long years of our acquaintance have never seen even the shadow of wrong, or ever heard the slightest remark against his integrity.

"All knew him to be a noble gentleman. On the title page of his life's book was written, 'As ye would that others should do unto you, do ye even so unto them.'

"This was the rock on which he built his character and rested his all. He was an honest and true man; was a good citizen, an exemplary neighbor, a kind father and a kind and loving husband. His life was as a beautiful garment woven from the delicate threads secured from the golden rule.

"It was my pleasure to have seen him a few days prior to his death, and being anxious as regarding his spiritual welfare, I said to him, 'My friend, I wish to know if the Saviour is your Saviour now, for I would be lonesome should I enter the 'pearly gates' and find not my old friend to greet me.' Being unable to speak he bowed his head in reply to my question, that all was well. I shall never forget those dark eyes of his as he gazed upon me, looking intently, and with a halo of light upon his features, saying to me, "All is well with my soul.'"

PIONEER WOMAN IS DEAD

MRS. ISABELLE TAYLOR PASSES AWAY AT HOME IN ALAMEDA.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 7.—Following a stroke of paralysis sustained about three days ago, Mrs. Isabelle Anne Taylor passed away at 11:30 o'clock last night at her home, 2415 Central avenue. Mrs. Taylor was the widow of the late Bishop William Taylor, well known for his labors in the Methodist Church in many parts of the world and who was a pioneer of California.

Mrs. Taylor was the mother of ex-Judge Stuart Taylor, ex-Senator E. K. Taylor and H. R. Taylor of this city and the Rev. Ross Taylor of New York City. She was a native of Botetourt county, Virginia, aged 79 years 11 months and 14 days. The deceased was a member of one of the oldest families that settled in this city, having located here with her husband in 1852, or fifty-three years ago, and was well known and esteemed by many old-timers in this city and in San Francisco.

WEDS NOTED MISSIONARY.

Mrs. Taylor was an orphan when she married the late Bishop William Taylor in Botetourt county, Virginia, on October 22, 1846. Later she lived in Baltimore and Georgetown, where her husband was a pastor. In 1849 he was sent to California as a missionary and arrived on the ship Andalusia, after a voyage around the Horn, in September, 1849. Bishop Taylor, then known as Father Taylor, was a noted street speaker and church worker in San Francisco for seven years thereafter. Subsequently his work became world wide. He also labored in India, South America, South Africa and other countries.

FOREIGN TRAVEL.

His wife rejoined him in Australia and from that country they went to South Africa, where out of his labors two annual conferences were organized. Her youngest son, H. R. Taylor, was born in Cape Town, South Africa.

Mrs. Taylor was the sister of Mrs. V. M. Peyton of Stockton, of the late Mrs. Dr. Bateman of that city, of Mrs. Carrie Bland, who is now living in Fernando, and the late Professor J. M. Kimbelin of Santa Clara. Mrs. J. J. Roadhouse of Berkeley is a niece.

The funeral will take place tomorrow, and both funeral and interment will be strictly private.

WILL GIVE A GRAND DISPLAY

Henry J. Pain long ago proved his right to the title of King of Pyrotechnists and the people of the Pacific Coast who have heretofore had only a few small examples of his marvelous genius are to see in the city of Oakland for the entire week of September 18 the great spectacular electrical and pyrotechnical exhibition which he considers his masterpiece. For many years Mr. Pain has annually given to the people of the larger Eastern cities and of the capitals of Europe a production of some big historical event, but none have ever equalled in grandeur "The Last Days of Pompeii," which has now been before the public for ten years with wonderful improvements each succeeding season, until now it is rightly called the greatest outdoor exhibition in the world. "The Last Days of Pompeii" is so entirely different from all other amusement enterprises that the people of this city, which is the only one in this section of the State where the show will be seen, have little conception of the magnitude and gorgeousness of the production. Nor do they realize just what the performance consists of. Imagine an open-air stage just ten times as large as the largest of local stages, set with acres of scenery so cleverly built and painted that one can almost fancy they are looking upon the beautiful ancient city of Pompeii as it stood upon the bay of Naples during the first century. This mimic city is peopled with over three hundred gorgeously costumed players.

YORK STATE FOLKS TONIGHT

It is said of "York State Folks," which will be seen here tonight, that it has many a delicious scene which one recalls after reaching home and thinking the play over, and there is that indescribable something about it which prompts the feeling that it would be real pleasure to see it again.

Just plain people from a plain town say the plainest things possible and do exactly what might be expected, and yet they fill an evening out with pleasantness, gay simplicities, sparkling youth and adorable sentiment enough to last a year. It is a literary achievement of breadth, originality and palpable force. It has atmosphere and rare mellow comedy, it has a story well told, though there is neither passion, sin, sensation nor theatrical contrivance to fascinate or astound the senses. There will be four performances of York State Folks, this evening, Friday, Saturday evening and Saturday matinee. Seats now on sale.

MAY IRWIN AT MACDONOUGH.

The conservative New York Evening Post said in its review of May Irwin's production of "Mrs. Black is Back":

"After an absence of more than two years from the stage, Miss May Irwin returned to the Bijou Theater last night in George V. Hobart's offering, 'Mrs. Black is Back.' It is not intended seriously, being simply a series of harangues by Miss Irwin with a few clever performers to give her a chance of resting now and then. Of course, there are the inevitable 'coon' songs, in which she is such an adept, and some dances. The situations are sufficiently effective in giving Miss Irwin opportunities of which she takes full advantage. She was ably assisted.

"Miss Irwin is, of course, the life of the show, and laughter was almost incessant whenever she was on the scene. She took the audience into her confidence at once, and they were quite ready to join in the chorus of her songs. Many of her sayings were very bright. Two of her songs, 'Bible Stories' and 'I Love to Two Step,' have a pleasant swing, and the words are funny. Miss Irwin is the whole piece, and therefore the theater is likely to be filled every night for some time to come." May Irwin will appear at the Macdonough Theater September 12, 13 and 14. Seats now on sale.

HAPPY RESULTS

Have Made Many Oakland Residents Enthusiastic.

No wonder scores of Oakland citizens grow enthusiastic. It is enough to make anyone happy to find relief after years of suffering. Public statements like the following are but truthful representations of the daily work done in Oakland by Doan's Kidney Pills.

C. T. Warren, house painter, paper hanger, etc., of 2008 Eighth street, Berkeley, says: "Like the majority of men who follow my calling I have been annoyed with my back and kidneys for years. I think if the primary cause of backaches in painters is not the fumes of the ingredients they use they certainly aggravate such annoyances when they exist. The painter requires a good, sound back, and when it aches and pains he is often in misery. Other complications of the stomach existed when I went to a drug store for Doan's Kidney Pills, and I scarcely expected the remedy would help my back. Much to my surprise and more to my gratification after I had taken two boxes, the backache ceased."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

BOXES FOUND ON DESERT

ROBBERS LEFT EMPTY TREASURE BOXES NEAR SCOTTY'S HOME.

GOLDFIELD, Nev., Sept. 7.—Hidden far under a huge pile of rocks and sagebrush smoothed into as close a resemblance to undisturbed nature as possible, and within a few feet of what has been positively identified as Walter Scott's home, sixty-five miles south of the Funeral range, there has been unearthed three of the money chests of Wells, Fargo & Co., broken open and rifled of all their contents.

John P. Poe, a one-time famous football player of the Princeton team, made the discovery, and upon his return to Rhyolite confided it to John T. Overbury, a prominent and well-known mining man of the southern districts, whose word is absolutely reliable. According to Poe's story, while prospecting on the desert he met Zeifle, who is one of the first discoverers of Walter Scott's hidden home. Zeifle was most enthusiastic over having found the dwelling place, and, feeling that he was hot on the scent of the mysterious mine, he urged Poe to accompany him in the search.

The spirit of adventure that made Poe an idol of the football field urged him to accept, and the two turned back upon a quest in which so many have lost their lives. They reached the cabin in the desert, and with it for a base of operations began prospecting in an ever-widening circle. Throughout the immediate neighborhood pieces of broken boxes led them to suspect hidden workings, and with ever-increasing excitement they continued the search.

At last the climax was reached, and at the bottom of an immense pile of boulders, sagebrush and indiscriminate rubbish was exposed to view the three great boxes, one apparently recently opened, lay uncovered in the sun. A fact which caused the men to glance significantly at each other was that the boxes gave evidence of having come from the Santa Fe Railroad and were evidently too large to have been used on a stage route. Broken bits of the boxes were found collected in a pile and buried.

Overbury stated that Poe seemed to be a man of his word and added that his story was accepted as bona fide in Bullfrog. Poe left Zeifle in the canyon near the scene of the find and returned for supplies to Rhyolite. He will rejoin his companion at once.

TREES FOR ROADWAYS

Fruitvale School Children to Have Arbor Day,

FRUITVALE, Sept. 7.—At the meeting of the Fruitvale Board of Trade held last evening a committee was appointed to secure the establishment of an Arbor day in the Fruitvale school districts.

The school children are to be interested in planting shade trees along the streets and roads of the district and in protecting and caring for them.

The committee is composed of W. S. Dunlevy, John Sanborn and Taylor Grubb, and is to report upon the best varieties of trees for the purpose, the distances at which they should be planted and the best time for setting them out. The plan is being well received by the residents of the districts.

FLEA POWDER CAUSED TROUBLE

William Whitaker, of 718 Broadway, who is the general agent here for the Champion Manufacturing Company, caused the arrest of S. D. Stanton yesterday because the latter was selling flea powder at the free market without a license, where Whitaker was selling a liquid for the annihilation of fleas. This aroused the ire of Stanton, who after his release on his own recognizance, went back to the free market, and as Whitaker alleges, knocked him down and struck him several times with some blunt object. He has two wounds on the back of his head, a bad bruise on the left temple, and his nose was cut across the bridge so that he bled profusely. He again caused the arrest of Stanton on the charge of disturbing the peace, and Stanton caused the arrest of Whitaker on the same charge, alleging that Whitaker had struck him.

The groom's gift to the bride was a chain of diamonds two and a half yards long, which she wore to loop up her veil. The bride gave the matron of honor a bracelet with a timepiece setting, while the maid of honor received a bracelet with her name in diamonds. The maids received bracelets initialed in diamonds. The gift of the bride's father was $50,000 in stocks.

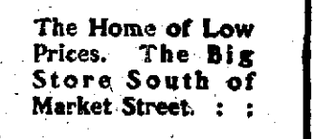

For more than a week the decorators have been at work transforming the Schoellkopf residence and grounds, using over 3,000 incandescent lamps in the flower beds and trees. The feature was a huge umbrella done in red, and there was also a miniature Niagara. The bride's cake weighed 105 pounds. Supper was served in a tent done in pink and white and trimmed with smilax and electric lights.
